PARTY TO HUSH TROUBLE TALK

Conference Solemnly Agrees To Refrain From Speaking of Rift Until Senate Closes.

BY FRANCIS M. STEPHENSON.
WASHINGTON, July 10.—(AP)— Hudson faced the irate officers of the republican national committee today and held off their threatened demands for his resignation as national chairman with a statement that he would discuss this after the adjournment of the senate.
The statement was immediately subjected to the interpretation in political circles that Huston then would announce his resignation, but the fighting chairman told newspapermen after the all-day conference with his officers that "I made no promises."
The belligerent officers who went to the party conference today determined to tell Huston that they believed his usefulness as chairman was at an end left the room saying they were satisfied with his statement.
Three of these officers who have been demanding that Huston quit—Daniel E. Pomeroy, of New Jersey, vice chairman; Joseph R. Nutt, of Ohio, the treasurer, and James Francis Burke, the counsel—conferred with President Hoover before the party conference today at the noon session. It was after this last house conference that the belligerency of the Huston foes faded apparently.

No Word.
Huston said he had received no word from Mr. Hoover, directly or indirectly. He said he had not talked with the president last Sunday night when Mr. Hoover told Huston of the ordeal started that Huston would resign at today's meeting.
A solemn agreement was entered into by the party conference today that no word about the party's troubles could be ended. It was agreed Huston should make any statements that were made. He asked for an opportunity to be freed from the constant sound of speculation about him resulting from the gossip within the party.
Huston was smiling and genial as he subjected himself to a bombardment of questions by newspapermen at the close of the meeting. His lips trembled slightly as some very pointed questions were put but he insisted he had not resigned; that he had not been asked to resign; and that he could speak only after the senate had adjourned.

Meeting Likely.
He did concede that there "probably" will be a meeting of the executive committee in the fall but he insisted that "it is customary to call the committee together before a campaign." This committee has the power to fill vacancies in the national committee organization.
Entering the meeting today aware that he faced almost unanimous opposition from his officers, Huston took command of the conference and the subject of his chairmanship did not even get up for discussion at the

HARRY MITCHELL GIVEN NEW POST

Manager of Domestic Commerce Bureau Will Be Sent to Portland.

Harry O. Mitchell, manager of the Atlanta division of the United States bureau of foreign and domestic commerce, will be transferred from the Atlanta office to the Portland, Ore., office in the near future, it was announced Thursday in Washington.
The transfer of Mr. Mitchell is in keeping with the policy of the bureau in shifting its men from one post to another from time to time, it was said.
A successor to Mr. Mitchell in the Atlanta office has not been decided upon, but orders transferring another official here will be issued shortly, it was said. The time for Mr. Mitchell's departure from Atlanta has been left to the convenience of bureau officials.
During his residence in Atlanta
Mr. Mitchell has been identified with a number of important local affairs and projects. He came to Georgia in 1918 to assume editorial direction of army newspapers in the fourth corps area. He has taken leading parts in civil activities, such as the Buffalo Liberty loan campaign, the Atlanta Community Chest campaigns, organization of the American Legion, organization of the National Aeronautic Association, reorganization of the Governor's House Guards, the Lindbergh reception, state aid tour, Cuban good will tour, and receptions of anguished mothers from France and Germany.
Mr. Mitchell entered the service of the department of commerce in January, 1923, as commercial agent in the Atlanta district office of the bureau of foreign and domestic commerce. He was appointed assistant manager in 1925, acting manager in 1926 and was designated as Lieutenant B. C. Gettinger in July, 1929, was appointed district manager.
He is a native of New York state,
the son of Harry Beldin Mitchell, manufacturer and grandson of Dr.
John Mitchell, noted physician and surgeon. He is a descendant of Samuel Woodworth, early American poet and historian and author of "The Old Oak Bunker" and other poems.
Mr. Mitchell will be district manager of the Portland (Oregon) office, serving a group of northwestern states comprising Oregon, southern Washington, Idaho and northern California.
Mr. Mitchell attended public schools of Ithaca and Buffalo, N. Y., and attended Williamsburg academy, Technical High school, Buffalo, the Associated Business College, New York city, Cornell University, and studied law at the University of Buffalo. He entered journalism in 1916 with service on the staff of La Hacienda, Buffalo. He was editor of the American Blacksmith, Buffalo, and editor and publisher of the Ferrerista, Atlanta, and the East Atlanta News.
He married Miss Vivian Holbrook June 21, 1923, in Atlanta, and they have one daughter, Vivian Patricia.
Mr. Mitchell has been the author of a number of special articles in The Constitution and other newspapers, as well as the City Builder, Industrial Index and Manufacturers' Record. He was secretary of the city air board for Atlanta in 1922, president of the Scoutmasters Club of Atlanta in 1926, a delegate for the state of Georgia in the Southern Commercial Congress at Savannah in 1919, the Southern Tariff Congress in Atlanta in 1921, and the Alabama State Docks in 1928.
He was an Atlanta delegate to the National Aeronautic congress in St.
Louis in 1922. He has served as secretary of the Southeastern Foreign Trade Council, and is a member of the Southern Commercial Secretaries' Association and an honorary member of the American Legion and Chattahoochee and Gulf Waterways Association. He was associate director of publicity for the southeastern region, National War Work Council, U. S. C. A., and affiliated agencies, Atlanta.

Tells Senate Question of Right to All Papers Far Transcends Passage or Defeat of Treaty.

BY D. HAROLD OLIVER.
WASHINGTON, July 10.—(AP)—
After three days of spirited debate, the senate today adopted a modified McKellar resolution requesting President Hoover to transmit to the senate all correspondence bearing on the London naval treaty exchanged between the powers prior to its negotiation.
The vote was 63 to 4.
As finally passed, the resolution would make the action of the president subject to whether he felt it would be harmful to the public interest. This is the attitude assumed by Mr. Hoover when he refused to transmit to the senate foreign relations committee all papers requested by it.
"Remarkable Vote."
Senator George opposed the resolution on the final vote even though it contained a change suggested by him to permit the executive to make such recommendations as he saw fit as to the use of the papers by the senate.
This phraseology, accepted by Senator McKellar, democrat, Tennessee, author of the resolution, was the subject of George's contention, by the Robinson amendment.
"This vote," the Georgian asserted,
"is the most remarkable ever taken here.
The senate has recognized the absolute right of the president to prevent the making of a treaty. I dare say that never before would the senate so commit itself in a matter of so grave importance. It is infinitely more important than the treaty itself."
Opinion was divided tonight on whether the executive would accede to the senate's request. Some senators believed he would stand by his original position. Others thought he would produce the documents with a request that they be held in confidence.
Senator Reed, republican, Pennsylvania, a delegate to London and a Hoover supporter, said the resolution as amended was satisfactory to him.
Disposition of the resolution cleared the way for resumption of debate on the treaty itself, although Senator Copeland, democrat, New York, fired the first gun for the treaty opposition during the resolution debate today.
He asserted the pact failed to relieve the tax burden, or give parity to American and British fleets.

Hale To Oppose Pact.

Senator Hale, republican, Maine, who has been waiting an opportunity to speak in the past, served notice he would speak the first thing tomorrow.
Chairman Borah, of the foreign relations committee, wanted Hale to speak today after the vote on the documents, but the senate postponed the committee chairman called attention to the lateness of the hour and said he would prefer not to make the address in two sessions.

This led Senator Robinson, republican, Indiana, another treaty opponent, to say there was no need to hurry the debate.
The amendment to the McKellar resolution giving the president the right to withhold documents he considered too confidential was offered by Senator Robinson, of Arkansas, the minority leader and the other senatorial delegate to London. It was adopted, 38 to 17. Most of the treaty opponents were reelected in the opposition on this vote.
Those voting against the proposal on final adoption were Senators Black, Alabama; Copeland, New York; and George and Harris, of Georgia, all democrats. They took the position that the Robinson amendment gave the president an excuse to keep the papers and that the senate should be the judge whether they should be held in confidence.
Nine democrats and eight republicans opposed the Robinson amendment, including many treaty opponents and several senators who have threatened to vote against the pact if the secret documents are not forthcoming for consideration of the senate.

The democrats in opposition were Black, Copeland, George, Harris, Mc-Kellar, Pittman, Thomas, Oklahoma;
Walsh, Massachusetts; and Walsh, Montana.

The republicans were: Hale, Howell, Johnson, LaFollette, Norris, Nye, Oddie and Schall.

SPECTATORS CHEER AS CAPONE HITS AT MIAMI POLICE

Gangster's Lawyers Charge Safety Director Operated Gambling House in Miami.

MIAMI, Fla., July 10.—(UN)— Defense arguments which included charges that Miami's safety director, S. D. McCreary, previously had perjured himself in a murder trial and operated a hotel in which gambling and other vices were tolerated, featured trial of Alphonse Capone, charged with perjury, here today.
McCreary's trial on charges of false arrest brought by Capone resulted in four original counts of perjury against "Scarface" Al, Chicago ganglord. The state charges Capone falsely accused McCreary of holding him in jail in communicado, refused him a telephone, food, water and blankets and that McCreary threatened to arrest Capone's mother, wife and son whenever they were seen on the streets of Miami.

Spectators in the courtroom cheered today when Attorney Fritz Gordon in arguments and cross-examination of McCreary tried to show that the safety director owned a hotel which operated as a vice resort and that he gave perjured testimony in testifying in the Quigg murder trial in 1927 before a grand jury.
Gordon further intimated Mc-Creary's testimony, therefore, was not to be trusted, and that he should be recognized as a criminal and not a law officer.

So bitter was the wrangling between four attorneys that the jury was excused so members would not be confused by conflicting legal arguments, and Judge E. C. Collins warned both sides numerous times to allow opponents to speak without interruption.
Plea of Richard H. Hunt, special prosecutor, and Solicitor McCaskill to have Capone's attorneys adjudge in contempt of court was ignored.
Each defense counsel sought to prove there was no arraignment of McCreary in court May 27 when Capone allegedly gave his perjured statements. The court docket that day showed McCreary pleaded not guilty to false arrest charges but Judge Warren L. Newcomb said that the court stenographer might have entered the not guilty plea by assumption and that proceedings were thus avoided.

Priscilla Dean Asks Protection From Wife

BEVERLY HILLS, Cal., July 10.
(AP)—Priscilla Dean, motion picture actress, revealed today she had asked police to watch her home from intrusion by Mrs. Mildred Avery Arnold, first wife of Lieutenant Leslie P. Arnold, around the world flier.
Miss Dean was Arnold's second wife until a Fulton county, Georgia, court set aside the divorce between Arnold and his first wife. An encounter between Mrs. Arnold and Miss Dean, some time ago, was revealed in the plea for police protection.
The actress reported she found Mrs.
Arnold and some agents in her garage.
Attorneys for Mrs. Arnold said they were seeking to ascertain whether Arnold was there. The actress said Arnold has been in the east since the Georgia court set aside his divorce.

RECALL PLANNED OF CITY OFFICERS

Mayor Ragsdale and Many Aldermen and Council- men Mentioned.

Petitions for recall of Mayor I. N.
Ragsdale, Mayor Pro Tem, J. Allen
Couch, Councilman Howard C. Mc-Cutcheon, Councilman W. Paul Carpenter and all aldermen and councilmen indicted in the municipal graft inquiry were being circulated Thursday.
Parks Rusk is announced as the chairman of a committee of 13 members, representing each ward, sponsoring the recall movement. According to Rusk, circulators of the petition Thursday obtained the signatures of 800 voters.

The section of the city charter providing for a recall election sets out that the petitions seeking such an election must bear the signatures of 25 per cent of the voters registered and qualified for the last general election. There were 16,992 voters registered in the last general election and the signatures of almost 4,500 persons therefore are required.

Recall Petition.

Following is the petition:
"To the Honorable Mayor and General Council of the City of Atlanta:
The undersigned, being registered voters in the city of Atlanta, hereby request that an election be called and held within thirty (30) days from date of filing of this petition, on the subject of the recall or non-recall of the following officials of the city of Atlanta, holding the positions indicated:
"I. N. Ragsdale, mayor.
"Howard C. McCutcheon, councilman second ward.
"C. L. Chosewood, councilman third
ward.
"J. W. Rountree, councilman third
ward.
"J. Allen Couch, alderman fifth
ward.
"J. C. Hardy, councilman sixth
ward.
"W. Guy Dobbs, alderman seventh
ward.
"J. T. Osburn, councilman seventh
ward.
"Claude E. Buchanan, alderman eighth ward.
"W. Paul Carpenter, councilman ninth ward.
"W. P. Price, purchasing agent."

Rusk Thursday night said the names of the other 12 persons on his committee would not be made public until the necessary signatures had been obtained and the petition filed with City Clerk J. Henson Tatum, who must call the election should the petition be presented according to law.
Only volunteer workers are circulating the petition, Rusk said, adding that more would be in the field today and that the petition would be presented within 30 days.

Ward Meetings Planned.

"After the petition is filed and the recall election set the committee in charge will hold ward meetings and inform the voters of the situation at the city hall," Rusk declared. "The members of the committee are all prominent citizens and persons identified with the reform movement in city government."

Under the charter if the office of mayor is vacated a mayor is to be elected by the people unless the office is vacated during the last three months of the term. In such case the mayor pro tem. would take office, but inasmuch as the recall of the mayor pro tem. also is asked, the toga, should be released.

Stubborn Show Girl Pays $17 for Jay Walking Stunt

Jaywalking in the face of a red light and the added warning of danger from the lips of Traffic Patrolman Earl Maddox cost Wilmer Lawrence, a 21-year-old showgirl, $17 here Thursday.
Miss Lawrence started to "run" a red light at Maddox's corner Thursday afternoon but the patrolman "warned her back." Back she didn't go and up came Maddox. The young woman, according to Maddox, still refused to obey his orders and he decided to give her a copy.
But Miss Lawrence didn't want any copy. Moreover, according to Maddox, she wouldn't give her name.
So he took her to police headquarters.
There she presented a problem. Still refusing to give her name, she was informed that if she didn't reveal her identity that it would be impossible to release her on her own recognizance for without a name she wouldn't have any.
"Nothing doing," she told the desk
lieutenant.
Puzzled, he ordered her to the major's mansion. There she was after several hours the young woman decided to give her name and address and post $11 cash bond not to insure her appearance in recorder's

FIVE ARE KILLED AS AIR TRANSPORT CRASHES IN TEXAS

Kansas City Men, Return- ing From Fishing Trip to Gulf Coast, Die in Plane Wreckage.

ARANSAS PASS, Texas, July 10.—(AP)—Five Kansas City men who flew to the Gulf of Mexico on a fishing trip, four of them prominent business and professional men and the fifth a transport pilot, met death near here today when their airplane exploded in the air and crashed to the ground.
The dead:
Murray Boyle, 48, president of the Missouri Bar Association and prominent civic leader in Kansas City.
Raymond Watson, 39, attorney, son of J. N. Watson, veteran member of the Kansas City bar.
R. J. Delano, 40, for the last 20 years a Kansas City builder and formerly chairman of the republican city committee.
Eugene Lynn, expert accountant and president of the Kansas City Golf Association.
Gene Gabbert, a transport pilot who for the last year pilot for Dr.
W. M. Cross, former city chemist of Kansas City, who loaned his plane for the fishing trip.
Witnesses of the crash said their attention was attracted by an explosion and they saw the wings break from the six-passenger monoplane.
The fuselage hurtled down with the trapped victims and buried itself in the salt flats about five miles from here. The plane did not catch fire.
The wings were found 500 feet from the fuselage.
Persons who saw the plane fall and inspected the wreckage expressed the opinion that the ship had been struck by a bolt of lightning.
Frederick H. Dierks, Kansas City lumberman, the sixth member of the party that arrived at Corpus Christi Sunday in quest of tarpon fishing, was the only survivor of the group.
He planned a last minute to let the plane leave without him while he remained at Port Aransas, across the bay from here, for more fishing.
The fuselage was found at Corpus Christi until today, when Gabbert went for it, landing at the Port Aransas field to take on his passengers. The plane was found in the ship traveled about 10 miles before it crashed.
Dierks bade good-by to his companions who had been successful fishing trip and were talking about reaching Kansas City tonight, he said.
"The plane made a perfect takeoff.
The sky was clear. Ahead several miles, I could see an exceedingly dark cloud. I watched the plane until it disappeared in this black cloud.
A few minutes later I heard there had been an accident."

MERGER FLOPPED, SAY 'LILY WHITES'

Macon Meeting of Rose- Hager Group Perfects Organization in Georgia.

MACON, Ga., July 10.—(AP)—So-called "lily white" republicans—representing they said, the republican party of Georgia—met here Thursday and perfected an organization designed to scatter their principles into the remotest districts.
Styling the democratic party as "a party of personalities" the group, known as the Josiah T. Rose, or the Clint W. Hager faction, unanimously adopted a resolution providing the appointment of a platform committee
"to draft a declaration of principles with respect to the needs of the state on the paramount questions of taxation, revision of criminal laws and judicial procedure, prohibition, governmental economy, constitutional amendment and generally to declare to the people of Georgia the things for which the party stands."
The resolution, offered by J. M.
MacDonald, of Fort Valley, provides, too, that the report of the committee be "given to the press of the state so that the people may know the possibilities of a two-party government, not with the purpose of presenting a state ticket this year but indulging the ardent expectation of announcing candidates for every office in the state in the campaign of 1932."
The document as passed expressed conviction that the "needs of the state demand general legislation of a constructive nature operating for the best interests of the people and not instituted by any clique or combination of selfish interests or political plunders."
It declares a party contention that
"at this time there is being conducted in the state a campaign of personalities in which a declaration of principles plays no part."
The group met here after a recess of slightly more than a month, during which the group had been in the

7-Year-Old Confesses Drowning Infant

LONG BEACH, Cal., July 10.—
(UN)—Without a show of emotion, L. Verne McDonald, 7, described to authorities today how he pushed James Roland Ellis, a 3-year-old playmate, into a flood control channel near here, and the boy's head under water until he drowned.
"I can hold my head under water in the bathtub with my eyes closed," the McDonald boy said. "It hadn't ought to have hurt him any."
The boy, who was taken to the juvenile hall in Los Angeles, told how he finally let the small Ellis boy go, threw the baby's clothes into the shallow river and went to his home.

Elks Close Meeting With Great Parade

ATLANTIC CITY, N. J., July 10. (AP)—Fifteen thousand uniformed Elks attending the sixty-sixth annual reunion of the grand lodge paraded through the city streets today.

The Elks marched to the auditorium to be reviewed by the newly elected grand exalted ruler, Lawrence H. Rupp, of Allentown, Pa., and the other new officers.

Harry Bacharach, who became mayor of Atlantic City today for the third time, was one of the marchers. The meeting of the grand lodge came to a close today with a memorial service and the installation of officers.

As the result of a petition signed by John F. Malley, of Boston, past grand exalted ruler of the Elks, the Boston "mother lodge" of Massachusetts Elks will have its charter restored December 1 next, provided certain conditions set up by the grand lodge are met.

The charter of the lodge was revoked by the national body after a raid by prohibition officers. Colonel Walter P. Andrews, retiring grand exalted ruler, said the Boston Elks will have to get "out of the hotel business, dispose of its present building and establish a lodge in other quarters."

Carolina's Star Felon Makes Fourth Escape

RALEIGH, N. C., July 10. (AP)—Otto Wood, North Carolina state prison's most notorious prisoner, made his fourth escape from Central prison here this afternoon. It was not discovered until the night check.

Wood is serving a sentence of from 12 to 30 years. About a year ago Governor Gardner announced that he was going to make an experiment in humanities and released Wood from solitary confinement after he had been kept in a veritable dungeon for 26 months following his third escape.

The method of his escape was a mystery tonight. Wood is without a left hand and has an injured foot.

Wood was originally sentenced for the murder of a Greensboro pawnbroker.

ing which time it was thought that there would be a merger of dual organizations in the state, and that two dissenting factions would "get together" for a concerted drive to "place republican principles before the people of Georgia."

J. H. Rush succeeds D. Woodward. Opening the session of lily whites today Vice Chairman Roscoe Pickett, of Jasper—presiding in the absence of Chairman Josiah T. Rose—said that the merger movement had "utterly failed" and now, he continued, "we have met here again for the purpose originally set forth—that of organization."

A telegram was read from Chairman Rose in Washington, D. C., where he said he is suffering with ptomaine poisoning. He pledged his support and approval of every action of the committee, he said in the message.

Vice Chairman Pickett appointed a committee of three, including himself, to nominate members of the executive committee.

The committee—Mr. Pickett, Mr. Hager and J. H. Rush, of Lumber City—retired and within a few minutes brought in the following nominations, all of whom were elected: First district, Dr. B. W. S. Daniel, Savannah; second district, Judge W. V. Custer, Bainbridge; third district, Edward Richardson, Marshallville; fourth district, R. L. Lovorn, Carrollton; fifth district, E. C. Talbot, Decatur; sixth district, George L. Blossom, Macon; seventh district, Jack Spence, Cave Springs; eighth district, W. G. Cornett, Athens; ninth district, M. W. Pitts, Nelson; tenth district, E. A. Henry, Augusta; eleventh district, R. L. Farr, Jessup, and twelfth district, J. M. MacDonald, Fort Valley.

Mr. Rose, Mr. Pickett, Mr. Davis and Eugene Oberdorfer, the latter treasurer of the central committee, will serve as ex-officio members.

Mr. Rush was elected to membership on the central committee to fill a vacancy caused by the resignation of David Woodward, of Atlanta.

Mr. Anchors, chairman of the republican organization in Warren county, bemoaned the fact that rural mail carriers and their assistants in his county are "ignoring" him, and urged the support of the central committee, in session here, in bringing them to proper understanding of party respect.

Mr. Anchors said he wanted authority to put republicans—men who are sympathetic with party principles—in those positions. He said he expected to have several vacancies soon. "They just ignore me," he complained.

Clint W. Hager, United States attorney for the northern district of Georgia, moved adjournment and no official notice was taken of Anchor's complaint.

RECALL OF CITY OFFICERS PLANNED

Mayor Ragsdale and Couch be recalled, would fall to Alderman G. Everitt Millican, of the tenth ward, the present provisional mayor pro tem.

It was pointed out that the recall petition includes the name of William P. Price, city purchasing agent, who is elected by council, but Rusk declared the voters have it within their power to recall any person elected or appointed to a municipal office.

"The charter provides the recall of all city officials may be brought about," Rusk said. "Our petition was drawn by lawyers well informed on municipal law and we are certain that it will stand in court."

HUSTON EXPECTED TO QUIT AT SENATE CLOSE

morning session. He himself brought it up at the afternoon meeting.

"I discussed some of the erroneous and contradictory stories in the press about me and that opened a full and frank discussion," he said.

Reminded that his promise to discuss his chairmanship after the senate adjourned left the doors open to speculation and interpretation, Huston replied:

"That is your responsibility but you will have to do your interpreting. This will keep you quiet for a while anyway."

Asked if any of the officers expressed any sympathy to him over his predicament, Huston answered, "I don't need any sympathy."

Huston's troubles with his party began after testimony was given the senate lobby committee that he had solicited funds for the Tennessee River Improvement Association in behalf of the Muscle Shoals lobby and that he had placed these funds in his brokerage account before turning them over to the association of which he was then president.

Demands immediately were made from the republican congressional group up for re-election this fall that he withdraw as national chairman. Then the word was passed around the capitol that Huston would retire after congress adjourned.

When congress adjourned and Huston gave out word that he had no intention of resigning at once, the disgruntled party leaders got busy. They prepared for today's meeting with the determination to have it out with him.

Huston reached the city late last night and again gave out word he had no intention of resigning at today's session and the party men prepared to make a public declaration of their intention to have it out with him.

The general interpretation of events tonight was that Mr. Huston demanded to be let alone while under fire. His plea won after he told the leaders that he would make a public declaration as the senate adjourned. Many of them believe he will get out then but others still think Huston will seek to line up his forces for a final fight.

Hoover Busy.

However, President Hoover has been busy lately looking for a successor to Huston. Senator Fess, of Ohio, is favored for the post, and Robert Lucas, the commissioner of internal revenue, has been slated to be the chief executive officer.

Only one sentence of Huston's formal statement dealt with the chairmanship question. It said:

"Certainly the matter of the chairmanship was discussed, but what I have to say on that subject will be withheld until after the adjournment of the senate."

Those attending today's meeting included Pomeroy, Burke, Nutt, J. Matt Chilton, of Kentucky, a proxy for Mrs. Alvin T. Hert, a vice chairman; Senator Moses, of New Hampshire; the chairman of the republican senate committee; Representative Wood, of Indiana, the chairman of the congressional campaign committee; Earl Venable, executive secretary of the congressional committee, represented Wood at the afternoon session.

As the speculation began again tonight to develop over Huston's future, the chairman's friends rallied behind him. They passed out the word that he had not resigned and that there was no telling what he would do until he himself announced it after the senate adjourns.

As for the discussion of party business at the conference, Mr. Huston reported that their organization was functioning in a satisfactory manner and, while it is too early to forecast results, prediction was made that party chances would improve as the campaign grew nearer.

The same plan is being followed this year in the raising of campaign funds as was followed in 1928, in that the entire requirements of the party are being raised through the treasurer of the national committee and allocated to the senatorial and congressional committees who are in active charge of the coming campaign.

"The treasurer, J. R. Nutt, reported that satisfactory progress was being made to insure the proper needs of these committees and that his organization would continue with the work until sufficient money had been pledged to supply the expenses of the campaign and provide for normal expenses of the national committee for the ensuing year."

NO ANNOUNCEMENT ON GEORGIA BOSS.

Little information was forthcoming from Chairman Claudius H. Huston on the contest in the Georgia republican situation after the meeting today of officers of the national committee and the congressional campaign committee.

Mr. Huston issued a formal statement in which he said that the several vacancies existing in the national committee make-up, including Georgia, had been discussed at the meeting; that they "will be presented for action by either the executive committee or the national committee in the customary way when called by the chairman," but beyond this he was unavailable for comment.

CHICAGO KILLERS AGAIN DEFY POLICE

CHICAGO, July 10. (UN)—Gangsters ignored unprecedented police activity caused by the Alfred "Jake" Lingle assassination by calmly murdering another racketeer today in his own home.

Two men appeared at the door of the house in which lived Thomas Bonner, 10 years a gangster. Bonner sat down his five-year-old son to answer the bell. The pair engaged him in a heated argument, said Bonner's wife. "Honest, you guys have got me all wrong," said Bonner.

"Not this time," said one of the men.

They fired several shots. Bonner died in a hospital, the forty-seventh member of Chicago's underworld to meet similar fate since the first of the year.

Investigation into the death of Lingle, veteran Chicago Tribune reporter, faltered, meanwhile, in a maze of conflicting reports, statements and charges.

The newest mystery in connection with Lingle's death concerned the reported capture and subsequent release in Los Angeles of James "Red" Forsythe, gangster sought for the actual slaying.

Pat Roche, chief investigator for the state's attorney's office, characterized the reports as "bunk" after a long-distance telephone conversation with one of his operatives on the coast.

The report published in a Chicago newspaper said that Forsythe was arrested two weeks ago, but was released upon convincing Los Angeles authorities that he was an employee of the Chicago corporation counsel's office.

The Evening Post, meanwhile, asked editorially why State Attorney John A. Swanson refused to allow Harry T. Brundage, St. Louis Star reporter, to testify before grand jury concerning the Lingle murder without first giving his information personally to Swanson.

Brundage recently wrote a series of articles concerning the Lingle murder. He charged that several other Chicago reporters, as well as Lingle, had been involved in alliances with the underworld, and offered to give definite information to the grand jury if called.

Swanson asked Brundage first to tell his story to the state's attorney. Brundage refused on the ground that his information was of so important a nature he wanted to be sure the grand jury obtained it so that it ultimately would become public.

"The grand jury has plenty of time to hear Brundage," said the Post in an editorial captioned "Well, Mr. Swanson? Why Do You Object?"

OFFICE TO PROBE REPORT OF RELEASE.

LOS ANGELES, July 10. (AP)—The district attorney's office planned an investigation today of statements by three policemen that they had questioned and released Fred Forsythe, wanted for the slaying in Chicago of Alfred Lingle.

Ed C. King, investigator, said the policemen entered the apartment of Frank Foster, indicted for the Lingle slaying, a week before his arrest, and found Forsythe and others present.

The policemen reported, King said, that they confiscated three guns found in the apartment which they searched for liquor, but returned the arms seeing no basis for charges.

The officials said Forsythe attempted to give them $200 after they had taken the guns. The policemen said the arrests of Foster and his companions a week later was the first inkling they had that they had been talking to a much-wanted Chicago fugitive.

Foster is being held here pending a hearing on his removal to Chicago. Chicago police here on the case say Forsythe shot Lingle with Foster's gun.

Slight Quake Shakes Small Ohio City

MARION, Ohio, July 10. (AP)—A number of small buildings were shaken perceptibly by an earthquake here tonight.

The tremor, apparently a localized disturbance, was of slight intensity, lasted only a few seconds, starting about 6:15 o'clock. No damage was reported.

Many residents reported the shaking of buildings, jolting of furniture and rattling of dishes.

Duncan 'Attacker' Appears in Court

LOS ANGELES, July 10. (AP)—Arraigned on a charge of battery brought by the dancer, Vivian Duncan, Rex Lease, film actor, today pleaded not guilty in justice court. His trial was set for July 31. Miss Duncan charged Lease gave her a black eye when she reproved him for his advances.

In his brief appearance in justice court, Lease stated his first statement concerning the alleged attack that occurred following an informal gathering last Monday night at the Malibu Beach home of Charles Farrell, film actor.

"Miss Duncan started it by striking me," he said. "It wasn't the wisest thing in the world for Miss Duncan to cause this to get into court. It is going to concern a lot of prominent persons before it is through."

Miss Duncan did not appear. Attorneys said she confined to a hospital.

Lease is at liberty under $500 bond.

The maximum penalty for battery is a $1,000 fine, six months in jail or both.

FALL TO ROBBERS

PATERSON, N. J., July 10. (AP)—

Three men slugged the proprietor of a downtown jewelry store today, escaped with watches and jewels valued at $8,000.

Entering the store of George N. E. Lott on a busy section of Main street one of the intruders struck Elliot with a blackjack and the other scooped up the valuables and ran.

Germ-Carrying Flies May Cause Epidemic

Take Precaution Now. Spray Kill-Ko—It Kills All Insect Life

CREATES MOST DEADLY INSECT GAS KNOWN

Even without a microscope, you know that a fly's body is literally seething with dangerous disease germs. You never know when one may drop or crawl into your food, bringing serious illness, or perhaps starting an epidemic right in your home.

Kill every fly, mosquito, ant, flea, moth and roach in your home. Keep it clean and sanitary. This is simple and easy to do if you will just spray Kill-Ko—the most deadly gas-forming insect killer known—the one and only preparation that you can trust completely.

Kill-Ko has been used, tested and approved by both health and hospital authorities for years. It does what other insecticides cannot do. Its deadly gas reaches every nook and corner.

Spray Kill-Ko about home. Let its head-protecting gas keep danger from your home, especially if there are children.

Get Rigo's Kill-Ko, in the blue bottles only, from your druggist or grocer. Two sizes, 50c and 75c. You will find nothing else more effective. —(adv.)

INDICTED CITY DOCTOR PLANS PENSION FIGHT

ASSEMBLY CANDIDATE GIVES OLD PLATFORM

Dr. Wilkins To Demand Pension by Mandamus Suit, He Announces.

Dr. John G. Wilkins, indicted city physician, will demand his pension through the courts in a mandamus suit before his trial on charges against him, he announced Thursday. He visited Mayor I. N. Ragsdale Thursday morning and requested the mayor to push his application for a pension before the committee at once. The committee Monday declined to act on the application, and Mr. Ragsdale had an opinion from the city attorney to the effect that the committee could defer action.

At the same time, Dr. W. H. Edwards, acting city health officer during the absence from the city of Dr. John P. Kennedy, health officer, announced the temporary appointment of Dr. C. R. Bullock to serve the duties vacated by Dr. Wilkins, whom the council suspended Monday by unanimous vote.

Under the council resolution Dr. Wilkins will remain suspended until trial and then will face impeachment proceedings, unless he elects to demand an impeachment trial before the court trial.

Dr. Bullock is an ex-major of the United States army, having retired last year. He served in the army for 22 years and was awarded the silver service cross for distinguished service at the front during the World War.

When I started Sargon I was down to 95 pounds and in miserable health, but I've actually gained 21 pounds—and my whole system is filled with new strength and energy," recently stated Mrs. Bertie Riley.

"Three years ago I had an operation and since then I've been terribly weak and rundown. My appetite was practically gone and the little I ate always upset my stomach. My liver was out of order, I was habitually constipated and my whole system seemed poisoned. I was tormented with raging headaches. I was very low-spirited and depressed over my condition.

"Since taking Sargon, I feel so much better and stronger it's hard to realize that anything was ever the matter with me. My appetite is simply wonderful and I eat things I hadn't dared attempt before. I don't know when I've slept so well, and my gain in weight and strength, I feel like a new woman.

"Sargon Pills are the only laxative that ever brought me lasting relief from constipation; they don't cause unpleasant effects like all the other laxatives I've taken. Words cannot express my gratitude to this wonderful treatment."

Sargon may be obtained at all Jacobs drug stores.—(adv.)

Johnny J. Jones, Fulton Enfant, Gives Legislative Aims in Statement.

Removal of the public school system from politics, repeal of special taxes on insurance agencies and curtailment of the power of the public service commission are three of the high spots touched by Johnny J. Jones, candidate for the legislature in his platform, made public Thursday.

The platform was embodied in a public statement issued by Mr. Jones from his campaign headquarters, 718 Petrus building, Thursday.

The statement follows: "In the announcement of my candidacy for the legislature in the daily papers of June 1 to succeed Miss Bessie Kempton, I promised that at an early date I would inform my constituency of the platform on which I asked their suffrage.

"If I am elected to the legislature, it will be my purpose to use my influence in trying to remove the public school system as nearly as possible from politics so that our boys and girls may have a better opportunity for an educational standpoint than formerly as I believe that every white child reared in Georgia is entitled to the privilege of attending free school nine months each year.

"Free schoolbooks. "I shall favor a law providing for free schoolbooks for children, as I believe that a city, county or the state can furnish books at much less expense than when purchased by the patrons or children at retail price.

"Believing in organized labor as I do, it will be my pleasure to support and support any measure or bill that may be offered in the legislature to better the conditions of the working man and woman of my county and state.

"I shall introduce a bill to repeal the law requiring resident insurance agents to pay occupation or special tax in counties where they do not reside, as I believe that the payment of tax in the county of their residence is enough.

"If I am elected I intend to introduce a bill removing from the Georgia public service commission the power which it now exercises in authorizing or permitting the power companies and gas companies of Georgia to force the people to pay what is commonly known as a 'meter or service charge,' for, while I believe it is right and proper to pay for every cubic foot or fraction thereof of electricity used and for the gas used, I do not think it is right to be required to pay for something we do not get.

"City Government. "I will not, under any circumstances, favor a change of government for the city of Atlanta or for any other city in Georgia unless the question of such change is first submitted to the citizens of the city proposing such change by popular vote; and I will not advocate or support any bill that will take from the citizens of the city of Atlanta the right to elect their councilmen from the wards in which they live, unless such proposed change is first submitted to the people of such ward by popular vote.

"I will never advocate or support any bill or resolution providing for the enactment of a law in the 'dark,' as it is my belief that the people should be informed of every measure introduced in the legislature and if it is intended to benefit the people at large, they should know of its provision in order that they may have an opportunity to be heard for or against such bill or measure so introduced.

"Tax Reduction. "While I do not believe that taxes can be reduced, it will be my pleasure to advocate any measure tending to reduce taxation, provided the reduction thereof will not cripple the public school system of Georgia or the payment of pension to due Confederate soldiers and their widows.

"If elected I intend to offer an amendment to the law relating to registration of voters, so that the registration books remain open for registration until 30 days prior to the date of the primary election.

"There are many other matters of importance affecting the people today that should be remedied, and from time to time during the campaign I hope to be able to discuss same.

"Thanking each and every voter of Fulton county for their influence and support in the primary on September 10.

"Very truly yours,

"(Signed) JOHNNY J. JONES."

Fox Gives Benefits For War Memorial

The Fox theater will give four benefit performances on Sunday for the Blood Mountain Memorial sponsored by the American Legion. It was announced Saturday by R. M. Lufburrow, chairman of the legion committee in charge of the memorial.

The program will include "Not Damaged," the picture which has been on exhibition at the theater the past week; a "Mickey Mouse" comedy, an organ recital by Dwight Brown, and a selection of slides depicting scenes from the World War. No admission will be charged but there will be a collection.

The theater will open at 2:30 o'clock Sunday afternoon and the first program will begin at 3 o'clock.

The Blood Mountain Memorial, to which proceeds from the benefit performance will go, will be erected on top of World Mountain as a memorial to World War dead. It will take the form of a memorial room and tower, which will be used for state forestry purposes.

Seaman Succumbs While on Honeymoon

Stricken fatally while on a belated honeymoon, Eugene Hickman, 22, a machinist's mate, attached to the U. S. S. Arizona, died at the Fort McPherson base hospital Thursday, his bride of three months at his bedside.

Hickman, his wife, and Mr. and Mrs. Fred Leister came to Atlanta to visit Leister's parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Leister, 332 Augusta avenue. Hickman and Leister were shipmates and to the Hickmans the trip was a honeymoon, they having been married in April. Hickman was stricken ill with typhoid poisoning and taken to Fort McPherson.

Hickman's body will be sent to Portsmouth, Va., the home of his widow, for burial.

HARRIS AGAIN CHARGES SLATON WITH LOBBYING

Declares Former Governor Violated the Law in Appearing Before Committee.

WASHINGTON, July 10.—(Special.)—United States Senator William J. Harris in a statement issued today renewed his attacks on the record of former Governor John M. Slaton, who is opposing him for reelection.

The statement charges that "Mr. Slaton not only lobbied, but he violated the law of the state of which I am the author, requiring all lobbyists to register."

Senator Harris refers to "Mr. Slaton's misstatements," and declares "the people of Georgia will not forgive him for deliberately trying to deceive them."

"I regret that Mr. Slaton's misstatements oblige me, in justice to the people, to burden them with a correct statement of the facts."

"It is not surprising that Mr. Slaton should continue his reckless misrepresentations with regard to my record, but it is amazing that a man who has been governor of his state should deliberately try to deceive a legislative committee that is trying to pass a law to obtain revenue to pay the Confederate soldiers' pensions, to keep the common schools from the necessity of closing their doors to the school children and starving other state institutions. Mr. Slaton, chairman of the committee on education, been present with the facts that disproved Mr. Slaton's statements. A humiliating spectacle for an ex-governor of the state."

"Mr. Slaton tried to deceive the committee and thereby exempt wealth from paying an income tax, thus keeping the tax burden on the backs of the farmers, the poor people, owners of houses, household and kitchen furniture, mules and other farm property. Mr. Slaton told the committee that an income tax had not been satisfactory in certain other states, but Mr. Davis had statements from the officials of those states disproving this argument. All honor to Mr. Davis whose devotion to the school children upon whom the future of Georgia depends, and the infirm Confederate soldiers, kept this ex-governor lobbyist from deceiving the committee."

"Mr. Slaton is now denying that he lobbied against taxes to pay the Confederate soldiers and the teachers in the common schools. After trying

Prison Department About $20,000 in Red

Atlanta is about $20,000 in the red, or will be before the prison personnel at the various city prisons is replenished with labor, it was announced Thursday by Clarke Donaldson, chief of construction.

This is due to the fact that Acting Mayor J. Allen Couch extended a blanket amnesty to 208 incarcerated within the city as a Fourth of July present.

The construction department has been forced to hire labor to carry on important work at the asphalt plant and at the city crematory. In addition street improvements and other projects which the department had been working with prison labor have been suspended.

In lieu of the normal 275 prisoners Thursday in all the prisons, there was only a total of 53.

Two Suspects Held In Robbery Attempt

The grand jury today will be asked to return indictments against two men held in an attempted safe robbery at Woolworth's Whitehall street store recently. The men are W. O. Eden and W. H. Blackman, who are being held by the police.

The men, together with Eden's wife, were arrested by detectives working under Lieutenant T. O. Sturdivant. Mrs. Eden has been released.

The Woolworth explosion failed to "crack" the safe and detectives said the yegmen were frightened off before completing their task.

Bob Thompson and C. W. Lampkin, who also were arrested in connection with the attempted robbery, have been released by Lieutenant Sturdivant.

To decide the legislative committee when he was lobbying before it, he is now trying to deceive the people by denying that he was lobbying. Why does he deny what nearly every member of the legislature, the school teachers of the state and others so well know to be true?

Georgia might forgive Mr. Slaton for lobbying, in and out of the state, but they will not forgive him for deliberately trying to deceive them.

No one knows better than Mr. Slaton that only an income tax or some other tax in Georgia could help the farmers and home owners from bearing most of the burden of taxation.

"Mr. Slaton not only lobbied against this bill, but he violated the law of the state of which I am the author requiring all lobbyists to register. Mr. Slaton was a member of the state senate at the time this anti-lobbying bill of mine became a law and he cannot deny that he knew there was such a law."

BIGGER BUYING POWER TO BRING PROSPERITY

Commerce Official Sees Dollar Worth More in Purchasing Capacity.

Increasing buying power of the dollar is causing a steady return to prosperity, according to an opinion expressed Thursday by John Matthews, Jr., assistant director of foreign and domestic commerce, who spent the day here in conference with Harry O. Mitchell, director of the local office of the bureau.

"The buying power of the dollar is now greater than at any time since 1916," Mr. Matthews stated. "There has been a great decline in wholesale prices throughout the United States and there is no doubt but that this will be followed by a reduction of retail prices."

"Low prices naturally result in buying on an increased scale, which leads to prosperity. Large construction programs over the entire country are speeding the process."

Mr. Matthews also expressed the opinion that Georgia was in a splendid position to take advantage of increased prosperity. Its production of cotton, fruit and other agricultural products, he said, places it among the foremost exporting states of the Union.

His honor—in short, Magistrate Gottlieb—acceded. The Earl of Seville, whose wife is a beguiling beauty with freckles, then departed amid much banging of photo flashlights. His seven lovely ladies trailed along in his wake, smiling sweetly.

But for all the stir, many a girl appeared without raiment, and so a colorful story was read into the record. The courtroom scene, in fact, was dramatically brief. Mr. Carroll, lawyer stood himself up and said that he would like to see the papers in the case for another 25 hours, and that if his honor would be so kind as to put the case over until 11 a. m. Tuesday he could be doing a worthy and chivalrous deed.

12-Year Girl Heroine Of Orphanage Blaze

The presence of mind of 12-year-old Evelyn Meyer Thursday morning was credited with the saving of the lives of herself and nine other children living at the Hebrew orphanage, 750 Washington street, when it was badly damaged by fire.

Awakened by the roar of flames in the sewing room, one floor below the dormitory where she and several other girls were sleeping, Evelyn rushed to the other girls and then ran into the boys dormitory and roused the boys. All were safely on the street when firemen, called by neighbors, arrived and extinguished the blaze.

A. Wyle and other attendants at the home also were in the building and were roused by the noise of the fleeing children. Mr. Wyle was unable Thursday night to estimate the damage to the building.

Mr. Slaton tried to deceive the committee and thereby exempt wealth from paying an income tax, thus keeping the tax burden on the backs of the farmers, the poor people, owners of houses, household and kitchen furniture, mules and other farm property. Mr. Slaton told the committee that an income tax had not been satisfactory in certain other states, but Mr. Davis had statements from the officials of those states disproving this argument. Horace Russell, president of the Atlanta Chamber of Commerce, will leave today for Albany, where he will address the annual convention of the Georgia Association of Commercial Secretaries being held there.

B. S. Barker, executive vice president of the Atlanta chamber and president of the state association, left Thursday and will preside at the convention today and Saturday. He was accompanied by J. H. Lambert and D. C. Owens, secretary of the Atlanta chamber, and Captain Raymond C. Hamilton, of the United States army.

Memorial Planned To Dr. James Hinton

A unique memorial consisting of a room to be set aside in the library at Emory University and dedicated to the late Dr. James Hinton, one time Shakespearean scholar and professor of English at the institution, has been proposed by his former associates in the administration, faculty and alumni, according to J. G. Shippe, university registrar and chairman of the memorial committee.

The room will be primarily a place where students may enjoy cultural and artistic advantages rather than those of a strictly academic nature, it is stated. If funds are lacking for the enterprise a Hinton memorial collection of literature embracing volumes of general interest will be established in its place.

Other members of the memorial committee, which receives all contributions are: Dr. T. H. English, Dr. J. M. Steadman, Jr., and Dr. G. C. White.

Stanley Family Reunion Saturday

A family reunion will be held Saturday at the home of Josiah E. Stanley, one of the most prominent farmers in Georgia, in Telfair county near Mian by members of the family who descended from the James Stanley branch which resided in Laurens county immediately following the Revolutionary War. Among descendants who will attend from Atlanta and vicinity are Vivian L. Stanley and Hal M. Stanley. It is expected that a large number of others will attend the reunion.

Technicalities Barred For Trial Reversals

ASHEVILLE, N. C., July 10.—(AP) The United States circuit court of appeals, in an opinion handed down today, held that technical errors in pleadings should no longer be ruled sufficient grounds for reversing lower court decisions.

The opinion, written by Judge John J. Parker, affirmed the conviction of four Baltimore men charged with violation of the prohibition laws in the district court there. It said:

"The time has passed when convictions will be reversed in the courts of the United States for mere technical defects in pleadings."

The defendants in the case were Sam Hill, George Bolton, Edward S. Murtha and Edward Miller.

They were indicted with 36 others on 17 hours of charges of smuggling 1,850 cases of whisky, gin, and champagne into the United States at Ocean City, Md., on December 20, 1929.

Found guilty in the Baltimore court, they appealed, contending the pleadings were faulty in construction. They are under sentences of 15 months to two years.

Sports Goods Taken In Two Burglaries

Thieves with sporting tastes were active Wednesday night or Thursday morning. The loss of a shotgun, a camera, and a talking machine was reported by Miss Julia Harmon, 6185 Penn avenue, while J. A. Miller, 435 West Peachtree street, was relieved of a set of golf clubs.

More businesslike professionals raided the home of H. A. Colwell, 1014 Katherine drive, removing a set of silverware.

Aldermen Approve All Council Acts

Members of the aldermen's board Thursday afternoon approved about $100,000 worth of street improvement bonds and all other measures sent to it from the Monday meeting of the general council of Atlanta.

The papers will go to Mayor I. N. Ragsdale today for his sanction or disapproval. Included among the bills was authorization of $500 for an audit of the accounts of the municipal garage.

Labor Retains Seat In British House

ATLHAM, England, July 10.—(AP) Labor retained its seat for North Norfolk at yesterday's by-election necessitated by the elevation of Noel Burton to the peerage. Lady Noel Burton, wife of the late Lord Burton, died last night.

Lady Burton received 14,321 votes, while T. A. Cook, conservative, received 14,042 votes. At the last election Noel Burton, labor, had a majority of 1,033 in a total poll of 37,845 with a third candidate, Mrs. F. C. Hoffman, liberal, polling 3,403 votes.

Carroll and Chorines Appear In Court and Deny Indecency

THROGS CROWD COURT ROOM TO HEAR EVIDENCE

BY H. ALLEN SMITH, United News Staff Correspondent. NEW YORK, July 10.—Earl Carroll, whose self-proclaimed life is to provide us Americans with sophisticated entertainment, led a smartly-dressed battalion of his ladies fair to the Jefferson Market court today to deny that his current super-revue—"The Vanities"—is indecent or vile.

A goodly number of weary business-men playboys and dowagers have been paying as much as $15 for the privilege of sitting in the New Amsterdam theatre and viewing the Carroll's phantasmagoria of likely lasses, so it was not a matter of great surprise when police reserves had to be called in to clear the eager mob in the courtroom.

But for all the stir, many a girl appeared without raiment, and so a colorful story was read into the record. The courtroom scene, in fact, was dramatically brief. Mr. Carroll, lawyer stood himself up and said that he would like to see the papers in the case for another 25 hours, and that if his honor would be so kind as to put the case over until 11 a. m. Tuesday he could be doing a worthy and chivalrous deed.

His honor—in short, Magistrate Gottlieb—acceded. The Earl of Seville, whose wife is a beguiling beauty with freckles, then departed amid much banging of photo flashlights. His seven lovely ladies trailed along in his wake, smiling sweetly.

Mr. Carroll, lawyer stood himself up and said that he would like to see the papers in the case for another 25 hours, and that if his honor would be so kind as to put the case over until 11 a. m. Tuesday he could be doing a worthy and chivalrous deed.

His honor—in short, Magistrate Gottlieb—acceded. The Earl of Seville, whose wife is a beguiling beauty with freckles, then departed amid much banging of photo flashlights. His seven lovely ladies trailed along in his wake, smiling sweetly.

But for all the stir, many a girl appeared without raiment, and so a colorful story was read into the record. The courtroom scene, in fact, was dramatically brief. R. B. JETT IS ELECTED TO CITY GARAGE POST Committee Agrees on Baxter Successor After Many Ballots.

R. B. Jett, former superintendent of the municipal garage, Thursday was elected to that post to succeed Superintendent Bruce Baxter, resigned.

Jett was named by the committee of five members on the 24th ballot, after Alderman J. Allen Couch, of the fifth ward, and Councilman Ellis B. Barrett, of the 13th, had stuck to him for many consecutive ballots. Alderman F. L. Moon, of the second ward, finally switched, giving Jett three out of the five votes on the 24th ballot.

After he had obtained a majority, it was moved that he be the unanimous choice of the committee and the motion passed, with Alderman Ben T. Huie, of the third, and Councilman W. Garland Cooper, of the tenth, other members of the committee, voting for it.

The election was one of the hardest held in Atlanta for many months. After the 22nd unsuccessful ballot, the committee took a five minutes recess to caucus. The 23rd ballot showed that Jett still lacked one vote of a majority, but he got that on the 24th. Jett has about two years of the unexpired term of Baxter yet to serve.

Prince George, Princess Mary, Countess of Harwood and her husband, the Earl of Harwood; Princess Victoria Marie Louise and other members of the royal household were grouped behind their majesties.

The eight Americans presented before their majesties by Mrs. Charles G. Dawes, wife of the American ambassador, were: Miss Helen Lee Washington, Washington, D. C.; Miss Justine Townsend, New York; Miss Elizabeth Wurts, Philadelphia; Mrs. Roy Baker, Washington, D. C.; Mrs. Elizabeth Davis, Princeton, N. J.; Mrs. Samuel Meek, New York; Mrs. B. B. Moon, Indianapolis, and Mrs. W. K. Botsford, New York.

Their gowns, indicative of the festive fashions called forth by the summer heat, were chiefly of pastel tints and satins and chiffons, instead of the heavy brocades so often seen at court.

King George's presence was the occasion of rejoicing in the palace. Until only an hour before the cars of the debutantes lined up for their long wait in the Mall, it was unknown whether he would be able to attend. It was at first feared that standing for two hours would be too great a strain after the attack of rheumatism which prevented his attendance at the last court. He appeared after the court physicians' decision that he was quite fit.

Moreover Stalin's duties as head of the communist party are so manifold that it is believed he could not possibly take on further work. As a matter of fact no candidate has yet been put forward to take the place of Rykoff, who, as a member of the right wing opposition party, is slated sooner or later to lose his position as premier.

Among those who have been discussed as possible successors to Rykoff are Jan Rudzutak, vice chairman of the cabinet, and Sergei Kirby, secretary of the Leningrad district of the communist party who is also believed likely to take Rykoff's place in the all powerful political bureau of the party.

English Court Receives Eight American Girls

STALIN NOT EXPECTED TO TAKE RYKOFF POST

LONDON, July 10.—(AP)—Before the twin golden thrones of Buckingham palace, flanked by masses of blue hydrangeas and pink roses, the last group of this year's debutantes, including eight Americans, made their bow tonight at the final royal court of the season before King George and Queen Mary.

His majesty, wearing the scarlet and gold uniform of colonel in chief of the Scots guards, and Queen Mary in a gown of powder blue and silver brocade, embroidered in pearls with the Kohinoor diamond flashing on her breast, stood to receive the presentees who filed before them in some of the most brilliant raiment the court has ever seen.

NEW INDICTMENTS DUE IN GRAFT PROBE TODAYGrand Jury Expected To Find at Least One True
Bill Friday.

Additional indictments, the first to be returned by the new grand jury, are expected this afternoon in the eight-month-old municipal graft investigation.

At least one true bill, accusing an employee of the city health department, is expected to be voted today, while it was considered possible Thursday night that others might be indicted.

The grand jury heard a number of witnesses Thursday in a special session called by Solicitor General John Boykin. Most of those summoned were understood to have been questioned concerning the activities of the health department employee under investigation.

Mr. Boykin announced that the graft situation again would be taken

Peoples To Address
Lawyers' Club Today

A traveling address by Henry O. Peoples, prominent Atlanta lawyer, induction of John B. McCallum as president and other newly-elected officers into office and a diversified musical entertainment will feature the regular monthly meeting of the Lawyers' Club of Atlanta at 5:30 o'clock this afternoon at the Henry Grady hotel.

Mr. Peoples, who has just returned to Atlanta after an extended tour of foreign countries, is scheduled as the feature speaker, and will relate interesting incidents and points of interest encountered during his journey around the world.

The entertainment committee, composed of Bruce Woodward, Frank Carter, C. D. Hurt, W. B. Beauchamp and William Hart Sibley have arranged a musical program including the Fairburn male quartet, with Miss Pauline Swanson as pianist.

Up today by the grand jury after the routine business, usually handled on Friday, is disposed of.

It is no secret that commodity prices are lower. It is also a known fact that manufacturers throughout the country are hungry for business . . . that they are cutting prices more or less radically to meet the present situation and keep their machines going and their workers employed.

We believe in grasping time by the forelock and taking our medicine rather than hold our merchandise and wait for the "turn," so we are making our price adjustments NOW. WE ARE OFFERING DESIRABLE, SEASONABLE THINGS IN THE SEASON IN WHICH THEY ARE WANTED MOST—at the new low prices. Most of these offerings are brand new . . . bought at new lowered prices. Others were bought for this season and prices readjusted to conform with the new low levels.

6 Ship Lines Bar Passage Of Negro Gold Star Mothers

Hurley Denies Attempt at Race Segregation Following Revelation; Hoover Sidetracks Complaint.

WASHINGTON, July 10.—(UN)—The fact that six trans-Atlantic steamship lines have declined to provide transportation for groups of negro Gold Star mothers to visit the graves of their sons in France came to light today after Secretary of War Hurley issued an emphatic statement denying the war department's attempt to segregate charges in this connection.

From a high official source it was learned that the Holland-America line, North German Lloyd, Cunard line, Anchor Line, International Marine Company, and French line all have found themselves unable to accommodate the negro Gold Star mothers sailing from New York July 12.

The disqualification of these lines to provide accommodations for negro women was advanced in official quarters as one reason why the government arranged to transport the negro mothers on a combination freight and passenger ship of the American Merchant Lines. This brought a protest from negroes that their race was being assigned to cheaper boats than those given white women.

It was learned that arrangements were made to carry an expected 5,000 negro mothers on the U. S. ship Republic, but that the number which finally decided to go was so small that accommodations were made for the smaller ship owned by the same company, on which, according to officials of the line, the mothers will have accommodations which are just as good.

Hurley's statement followed receipt by the White House of a letter from Walter White, secretary of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People, wherein he complained to President Hoover the war department was discriminating against negro mothers.

Mr. Hoover referred the letter to the war department.

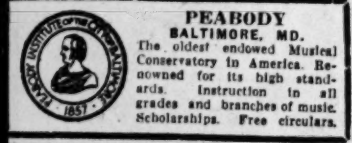

After explaining he believed negro mothers would find more solace in visiting their sons' graves in company with members of their own race, he made individually in its act authorizing the pilgrimages, Hurley said:

"The war department has no objection to members of one group joining other groups provided they are welcomed by the groups concerned. Without such welcome it can be understood that this action would not be conducive to the peace and comfort of the pilgrims of either race."

"If evidence is furnished of any member of any group wishing to join another group and who will at the same time be welcome by that group, the war department will be glad to make the necessary arrangements."

Of the 61 negro mothers who planned to sail from New York next Saturday, only seven have cancelled their passage. It was said at the war department, they did not advise the department why they were declining to go, but the same percentage which found it necessary to cancel their reservations on previous tours for various reasons not connected with race segregation.

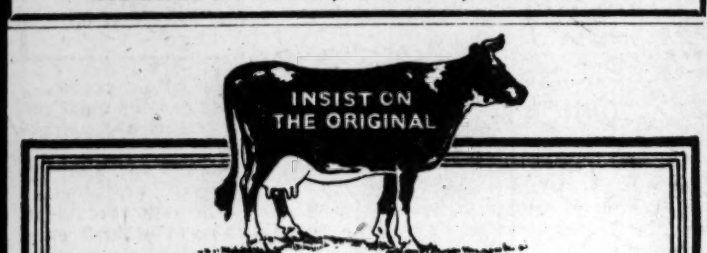

Many of the protests against race segregation which have reached the department were said by officials there to have come in on standardized forms. Officials interpreted this to mean some organization was sending out the forms with the suggestion that mothers not making the trip use them to protest.

ALABAMA PRISON HOLDS 9 RACE RIOT NEGROES

Governor To Decide Course of Procedure Against Parties to Melee.

MONTGOMERY, Ala., July 10.—(AP)—Under the protection of the law, nine negroes tonight were in Alabama prisons, while state law enforcement officers pressed to a close their investigation of the Fourth of July disorders at Emelle, Ala., that cost the lives of six persons—two whites and four negroes.

The negroes, all members of one family, surrendered to officers voluntarily, six of them after several days of crouching in a corn field near Emelle without food or water.

The negroes, all members of the families of brothers, Tom Robertson and John Newton Robertson, who was killed resisting efforts to search his house, sought safety in flight after Esau Robertson, son of Tom, had been lynched.

It was Esau's quarrel with Clarence Boyd over payment for an automobile battery that was credited with precipitating the clash. He was seized by bystanders after Grover Boyd, uncle of Clarence, was slain as he went to his nephew's assistance.

Charlie Marrs, the second white man killed, was believed to be the victim of a member of the posse. Captain Potter Smith, of the state law enforcement officers, said the investigation disclosed that Marrs was shot in the back of the head while facing Robertson's house. After Marrs was discovered slain, his house was burned by a posse that believed some of the negroes sought had taken refuge in it.

The other two deaths occurred Saturday night as armed bands roamed the countryside seeking the fugitives. One, a negro woman, was shot as she fled from the posse. The other was a white man, who was shot as he fled from the posse.

The other was an unidentified negro who was slain in the railroad station at Natchez, Miss., when he was shot by possemen who sought to search him.

Governor Bibb Graves today said when the report of Walter McAdory, chief law enforcement officer, is completed he will study it and make a statement.

Officers Arrested In Dry Raid Slaying

BARBOURVILLE, Ky., July 10.—(AP)—Nat C. Helton, former deputy constable, and Alex Knuckles, Knox county deputy sheriff, were arrested today by deputies in connection with the slaying of Omar Helton, the county's dry law Tuesday on the farm of his father-in-law in Knox county.

Helton is charged with firing the shot that killed his brother. The arrest of the two men ended a two-day search near the Knox-Whitley county border. Helton is charged with murder and Knuckles is named in a warrant charging conspiracy to commit murder.

The officers also are seeking G. T. Helton, a cousin of Nat, on a murder conspiracy charge.

Guy Tuggle, London, federal prohibition agent who led the raid in which Knuckles was slain, for J. E. J. H. a Laurel county officer, surrendered yesterday on conspiracy charges and posted nominal bond for their appearance in county court August 6.

Mackey was said to have been running when he was killed by a 45 bullet. Officers said he had a half pint of liquor in his hip pocket but that they found no liquor in the house.

Tuggle said he heard the shot fired and shouted to his companions not to shoot.

Tennessean Named To Head Bryan School

DAYTON, Tenn., July 10.—(AP)—Bryan Memorial University, being erected here as a tribute to William Jennings Bryan, today had as its first president, Dr. George E. Guille, of Athens, Tenn., who, like the congressman, is a staunch advocate of fundamentalism.

The selection of Mr. Guille, a worker of the Moody Bible Institute of Chicago for more than 15 years, was announced yesterday by F. E. Robinson, president of Bryan University Memorial Association. Malcolm Lockhart, University of Georgia graduate and one of the financial backers of the university, was elected vice president.

Almost within the shadows of the Rhea county courthouse, where William Jennings Bryan waged his last battle for fundamentalism in the John T. Scopes anti-evolution trial, the administration building of Bryan Memorial University is nearing completion.

Special classes will begin September 18, Mr. Robinson said, in the old Rhea County High school building, and will continue there until the university is completed.

William Jennings Bryan died in Dayton two days after losing the famous Scopes trial. His associates and friends here made while here formulated plans shortly afterward for the memorial.

Swallowing Check Fails to Foil Cops

EASTON, Pa., July 10.—(AP)—Frank Maccono, of Jersey City, is in jail, and the police are holding a check which experienced what happened to John—except that it wasn't a whole's stomach, but Maccono's.

Maccono presented the check to a teller at the LaFayette Trust Company today. The teller became suspicious and called another teller, who called a policeman. The policeman said that as he arrived, Maccono snatched the check away and swallowed it.

They took Maccono first to a hospital where a doctor recovered the check. Then they took him to jail.

Gotham Police Raid Sumptuous Gambling Resort

NEW YORK, July 10.—(AP)—A luxuriously furnished apartment was raided by police today as one of the most pretentious gambling resorts uncovered since the days when Richard Canfield ran his famous gambling place.

Two detectives in evening clothes who raided the 14-room apartment, occupying the entire eighth floor of an apartment building in a fashionable section of Park avenue at 47th street, said they seized a complete gambling outfit, a quantity of liquor and a large sum of money. They broke down the door about 50 men and women fled down an inside fire escape.

George Herrick, 37 years old, less of the apartment, and his negro valet, William Sullivan, were arrested.

Detectives James Brady and Robert Morris, who by use of a code word gained access to the apartment, said Herrick and Sullivan met them in the lobby and Herrick, recognizing them for detectives, promptly locked the door and tossed the key out of the window. Sullivan yelled.

Police sound of confusion from within, the detectives smashed the lock.

When they entered, they said, the apartment was deserted by the two men and other personal belongings, attested to the hasty exit of a considerable company.

Police said 19 green baize table covers, marked and numbered for dice games, a chemin de fer outfit, a croupier's rake and 18 bottles containing liquor were found in the place.

Herrick and Sullivan were released in $500 bail on both the gambling and liquor charges.

Police said the raid was made after undercover agents had investigated complaints against Herrick's apartment. The detectives had warrants for three wayward girls which they used as a pretext for breaking into the place.

They said they had information that the girls were employed as hostesses in the place. Herrick, they said, was a gambler and Sullivan was a valet. The girls were in Miami, Fla., and Saratoga, N. Y.

Minister Will Build Broadcasting Plant

JACKSONVILLE, Fla., July 10.—(AP)—Denied the privilege of broadcasting remarks alleged to be derogatory against the city of Jacksonville in his sermons over municipally-owned station WJAX, the Rev. A. C. Shuler, militant pastor of Calvary Baptist church here, has said pool-pool to the city commission, he plans to build a $20,000 station of his own and has applied to the federal radio commission for a permit, he said today. He hopes his church will help finance the project.

The city commissioners recently passed a radio "tag" rule against the minister, who claimed that in a sermon broadcast over the municipal station he said some "unkind things" about Jacksonville.

Rev. Shuler carried his fight into the pulpit and in a sermon punctuated with remarks about politics, called the city commissioners a "bunch of blockheaded fools," and said they would "learn something at the next election."

The radio station, which the minister said he planned to build, would be operated on longwave radio, sponsored by members of Jacksonville during week days and for his sermons on Sunday.

Rev. Shuler said he would go to Washington next week to see his application to the federal radio commission.

Du Pont President Will Marry Widow

WILMINGTON, Del., July 10.—(AP)—Lamont Du Pont, president of E. I. du Pont de Nemours & Co., today announced his engagement to Mrs. Caroline Hynson Stollenwerk, of Seaford, N. Y., a former resident of Wilmington.

Mrs. Stollenwerk is the widow of E. Carroll Stollenwerk, of Baltimore. Mr. Du Pont's wife died about two years ago. No date for the wedding was announced.

Missing Girls' Father Has 2 Men Arrested

RICHMOND, Va., July 10.—(AP)—Two men were arrested and a warrant sworn out for a third here this afternoon in connection with the disappearance of Miss Mary Frances McCleny, prominent Richmond society girl, last July 1.

Her father, arrested N. H. Dickinson, 35, and Johnnie Ledbetter, 20, who were charged with being accessories in the girl's disappearance. The warrants were sworn out by Dr. D. C. McCleny, father of the girl.

A third warrant was issued for Harry Dickinson, alleged companion of Miss McCleny. He is charged by the father with abducting the girl. The action of the county officials followed conferences today with private detectives and an attorney representing the McCleny family.

Kill the Cause Of Skin Trouble

If you suffer from skin eruptions of any kind, pimples, itch, tetter, ringworm, eczema, etc., a pleasant ointment, known as Tetterine, containing highly effective parasite, germ-destroying and skin-healing properties, never fails to bring quick and permanent relief.

Tetterine, by its cooling, soothing antiseptic effect, kills the parasites that bore into the skin, causing irritation and itching. Tetterine is sold and guaranteed by all druggists at 60c a box.—(adv.)

U.S. DRY AGENTS ARREST 68,186 IN PAST YEAR

24,373 Stills Seized; Arrests and Still Seizures Both Increase.

WASHINGTON, July 10.—(AP)—Prohibition enforcement during the last fiscal year of its operation under the treasury resulted in the arrest of 68,186 persons and seizure of 24,373 stills.

The arrests showed an increase of approximately 2,000 over the 1925 fiscal year and of approximately 1,000 in the number of stills seized. The figures included the number of arrests and seizures for 11 months of the year and estimated arrests and seizures for June.

These statistics were prepared by the old prohibition bureau which operated under prohibition Commissioner Dorian until the department of justice took over prohibition enforcement on July 1 and showed that about 1,320,000 gallons of spirits and 8,000,000 gallons of malt liquor had been seized. In addition agents of the bureau seized 5,775 automobiles.

During the year the majority of stills were captured in the southern states. About 50 per cent had a capacity of less than 100 gallons daily while five per cent had a capacity of 500 gallons a day. Of the total figures showed only about two per cent were found to be operating on denatured alcohol, while the others used corn, cornmeal, corn sugar, molasses and cane sugar to produce liquor.

Many stills captured in the south were of the old moonshine variety which were operating before there was a prohibition law.

Corn sugar stills during the last few years have shown an increase. Dorian recently said this variety of illicit distillers had turned to corn sugar and were producing as good a grade of alcohol as that turned out in the industrial plants operating under permit.

At that time he pointed to the huge increase in manufacture of corn sugar as one of the outstanding means which the bureau had to face.

Glenn H. Curtiss To Go Under Knife

BUFFALO, N. Y., July 10.—Glenn H. Curtiss, aviation pioneer who was taken to the Buffalo general hospital today after suffering from an attack of appendicitis at Hammondsport, will be operated on tomorrow morning, his physician, Dr. Thew Wright, announced tonight. The attack, while an acute one, has left Mr. Curtiss in no immediate danger, the physician said.

POLES LEAD IN CHICAGO A L I E N POPULATION

CHICAGO, July 10.—(AP)—Approximate census figures on the national groups in Chicago reveal that the Polish people exceeds that of any other nationality with the Germans running a close second.

The number of Poles has increased from 137,611 in 1920 to an estimate of 400,000 in 1930. The Germans have increased from 112,283 to 320,000.

The negro population has almost doubled since 1920, increasing from 100,458 ten years ago to more than 200,000 now.

Negro, Held in N. Y., Convicted in DeKalb

Dave Battle, colored, who in December, 1928, escaped from the detention room of the DeKalb county courthouse, exactly 15 minutes after he had been given a sentence of from three to five years for burglary, has been captured in New York city after a year and seven months of liberty.

His arrest was on July 4 on a charge of felonious assault, according to a wire received Thursday night from John Edgar Hoover, director of the federal bureau of identification of the department of justice in Washington, D. C. The wire was received by Atlanta police who arrested the negro in 1928 in the section of Atlanta in DeKalb county.

Fingerprints from Atlanta lodged with the federal bureau led to the negro's identification when compared with New York records. Sheriff Jake Hall, of DeKalb county, Thursday night was preparing to wire New York authorities with the object in view of returning Battle here to serve his sentence after his spectacular break from the courthouse.

Two Planes May Race Over Pacific Ocean

TACOMA, Wash., July 10.—(AP)—An air race across the Pacific from Tacoma to Tokyo loomed today as a possibility.

Lieutenant Harold Bromley is expected here tomorrow with a monoplane designed for the flight. Bob Wark and Eddie Brown, pilot and copilot of the biplane Pacific Area, also announced they planned to have their flight in shape for the hop "in time to give Bromley a race."

Bromley expects to be ready for the flight in ten days. Though the rivalry is friendly and they are "wishing Bromley luck," Wark and Brown hope to be the first to take off for Tokyo. They believe a week or ten days may see auxiliary gas tanks installed in their plane, ready for the gruelling flight of nearly 5,000 miles.

Bromley's flight would be non-stop without refueling. Wark and Brown's would be non-stop but they expect to refuel their plane over Juneau, Alaska, again at Nome and at Petro-Pavlovsk, Kamchatka, after crossing the Bering sea.

Terrific Hailstorm Sweeps North State

FAYETTEVILLE, N. C., July 10.—(AP)—A terrific hailstorm, pelleted crops over an area seven miles long and of undetermined width in eastern Cumberland and western Sampson counties late today.

Hailstones as big as hen eggs were reported to have passed entirely through full-grown watermelons and fields of corn were beaten to the ground. Cotton was destroyed.

One Killed as Motor Plunges 32 Stories

Chinese Play Turned Into Real Tragedy

NEW YORK, July 10.—(AP)—A melodrama in real life stopped this show last night at a Chinese theater on the Bowery.

An actor portraying the role of a burglar was creeping across the stage when suddenly five shots rang out from the rear of the house. Actors and audience immediately fled, and when the police arrived they found only a dead man in one of the seats and three theater employees.

The slain man was identified as Hung Wah Hung, president of the Tong Ong, an organization of merchants independent of the Hip Sing and the Leong Tong. It was the second killing of a Chinese in a theater within a few months. The police questioned the theater employees, two ticket collectors and a watchman, but were unable to learn anything about the shooting.

Gas Reaches Nickel In California 'War'

SAN FRANCISCO, July 10.—(AP)—Gasoline retailed as low as 5 cents a gallon, including a 3-cent state tax, was being sold today in California.

The price reached the 5-cent level in Fresno yesterday. A large distributing company in Tacoma which had been selling at 7 1/2 cents retail planned to shade that quotation by 1 cent a gallon. Another firm announced a wholesale price of 4 1/2 cents in California.

The lowest retail price in Los Angeles was 8 1/2 cents, including the 3-cent tax. Seattle motorists were paying 9 1/2 to 11 cents, including a 3-cent tax. Portland retail prices ranged from 10 to 13 1/2 cents, including a 4-cent tax. Quotations in San Francisco ranged from 10 to 14 cents, including tax.

Independent dealers in San Francisco have asked Governor Young to aid in having gasoline distributors classified as public utilities operating under regulation by the state railroad commission.

Couple Little Hurt After 100-Foot Drop

OCEAN CITY, N. J., July 10.—(AP)—After plunging nearly 100 feet from a bridge a young couple today extricated themselves from their automobile 30 feet under water and escaped only slightly injured.

The two, William A. Loresworth, 24, of Haddon Heights, N. J., and Miss Mildred Lindsay, 22, of Yeadon, Pa., were crossing over the Ocean City Somers Point bridge when the accident occurred. Their automobile skidded and tore away more than 50 feet of railing before dropping.

Loresworth and Miss Lindsay succeeded in opening a door only after the car had come to rest at the bottom of the channel. They shot to the surface and swam to a nearby trolley line bridge, where they were pulled ashore by a motorman.

ARMY AIR CORPS LOSES MANY BY RESIGNATION

27 Fliers Leave, Most of Them for More Lucrative Positions.

WASHINGTON, July 10.—(AP)—Official figures today disclosed a record number of resignations from the army air corps during the last fiscal year.

Mounting with almost unvarying rapidity since 1921 when nine aviators left the service, statistics prepared by the war department showed 27 officers of the aerial branch of the army left the service during the past year.

Resignations during the year in all branches of the service totaled 102—a smaller number than any period in the last ten years excepting 1923 when 83 officers left the army.

Rapid expansion of commercial aviation in the United States during the last decade is attributed by high army officers as the cause of resignations from the air corps. The increasing number of air corps resignations has continued despite the 50 per cent additional pay given officers of the corps.

Contrasted with the air corps the medical corps of the army with a total of 1,291 officers has shown a steady decrease in resignations from 68 in 1921 to 15 during the last fiscal year. This decrease, however, is attributed by many officials to be due to the regulation calling upon those joining the medical service to agree to serve at least two years.

Of 1,440 officers in all branches of the service who have resigned during the past ten years a large majority have given as reasons for their desire for separation from the service the fact that more lucrative offers than those provided by the army have been received, this is particularly true in the corps of engineers, which annually loses about 1 per cent of its officer personnel.

Recently, two officers with the rank of major resigned from the corps of engineers, each for positions paying $25,000 annually, one with a large power company and the other as manager of a large city.

Considerable agitation for increased pay of army officers has taken place in army circles in recent years and the general feeling among officers is that an increase in pay would prevent some part of the annual resignations.

Methodist Laymen Pick Duke President

LAKE JUNEAU, N. C., July 10.—(AP)—W. P. Few, president of Duke University, Durham, N. C., today was elected president of the board of lay activities of the Methodist Episcopal church, south, which is holding its annual meeting here.

Few succeeds Judge M. E. Lawson, of Liberty, Mo., who has held office for four years.

Other officers elected were: G. W. Pender, Little Rock, Ark.; D. R. Anderson, Lynchburg, Va.; and M. A. Beeson, Stillwater, Okla., vice presidents; S. H. Blair, Montgomery, Ala., recording secretary, and J. E. Crawford, Nashville, Tenn., treasurer.

JIM THE CONQUEROR

By PETER B. KYNE

SEVENTEENTH INSTALLMENT.

Crooked Bill stared at the young man in amazement.

"I'm afraid of her," Hackett resumed in his slow, methodical way. "She's too damned modern and I'm too old-fashioned. I'll not change and she can't. I fear we would be mismatched and I'll not risk a brief happiness. I can stick to Jose Roberto now, but I wouldn't care to have to stand to lose her after I'd won her; it'd break my heart to discover at some future time that she wasn't happy with me."

"Mares' nests," Crooked Bill protested. "I tell you I know women. They may boot for years at a masterful man, but they'll end up by marrying him and adoring him until death do them part. Go through with my plan and then stand by to see how the cat jumps. Nothing like worry and adversity to clear a proud head, I'm telling you."

"Well, it cannot hurt to try the thing out, Mr. Latham. If there's any backfire later you'll be the one to get scorched for deceiving folks who trust you."

"Spoken like a man," said Crooked Bill. Half an hour after Don Jaime's coup had resulted in the capture of Bill Dingle and his men, another dust cloud to the south attracted Don Jaime's attention. He watched it without interest.

"Ken Hobart and his men returning," he explained to Mrs. Ganby presently. "Ken has a head and can be depended upon to use it."

His cheerful grin welcomed Hobart as he entered, leaving his men to ride around to the barn and corral. "I didn't bother sending a messenger with the news that it was a false alarm, Ken," he informed the latter. "I figured you'd have one man drop out of your party to watch the road to Valle Verde, while you rode on, taking your leisure."

"I did exactly that," Hobart replied. "When he galloped after us and reported seven mounted men had come out of a canon to the east and taken the road to Valle Verde at a fast trot I concluded your suspicions were well grounded and that I might risk returning. So Dingle arrived with blood in his eye, eh, Don Jaime?"

Don Jaime nodded. "I have an idea they planned to hang me from one of the trellis beams in my own grape arbor. . . . Well, Caraveo has them over at the barn under guard."

"What do you intend to do with them?"

"It occurred to me it would be a fine idea to enforce my hospitality after we've counted those sheep. That makes the job a lot easier, don't you think? Easier, too, to shift those sheep south of the Arroyo San Dieguito again and keep them there."

Hobart nodded approval. "The best way to win a fight is to avoid it, he agreed. "Well, I go up to El Paso for that crippled boy."

He departed for his quarters again, changed into more urban clothing, and was driven to town in the ranch car. Three days later he returned with Mrs. Ganby's son, an ethereal little boy semi-paralyzed on his left side. When he had been greeted by his mother he was brought to Don Jaime to be presented. Shyly he sidled up to the lord of the rancho and laid a thin little hand in Don Jaime's, so firm and hard and brown.

"I'm awfully glad you consented to come down here and keep me company, Robbie, the young man greeted him. "What can you do to keep a fellow amused?" he demanded.

Robbie pondered Don Jaime's question and replied, presently, that he could play the harmonica.

"You'll be popular, Robbie, but to make a real hit you must learn to play a lot of airs you've never heard before. Did you bring your harmonica?"

"Yes, sir. Ken bought me a grand one in El Paso."

"Think you two can get along without fighting?"

Robbie laughed at the bare idea of conflict with his new-found friend. "Oh, Ken and I get along fine together. Come, let's see the car he let me wear his pistol. He said we might meet some tough customers and it was best to be ready. He let me shoot his pistol, too." He stared hard at Don Jaime. "What's your name, mister?"

"My name is Jimmy."

"You got any boys?"

"No. That's why I sent Ken up after you. I've been lonesome a lot here lately, so when your mother told me she had a boy, why, I thought I'd borrow you. You have no objection, I hope?"

"Not the slightest, Jimmy."

"Did Ken tell you about the pony we have here for you?"

Robbie's wistful eyes glistened. "I can ride a pony. I know I can."

"When I get well we'll go riding together. I think now, Robbie, your mother wants to visit with you, so you'd better run along. After dinner we'll really get acquainted."

Having changed from his store clothes, Ken Hobart dropped into a chair beside his employer.

"Any trouble?" he asked.

"None. Bill Dingle's foreman made a bluff at starting some, but Caraveo paid no attention to him. He was troublig in his soul at the lack of news concerning Bill Dingle and the six herders; to him no news was bad news, so I instructed Caraveo to tell him nothing—if necessary, to treat him rough. And I sent enough men to enforce my desires. First they moved the sheep south of the San Dieguito, where we had another corral. Then they washed the brushes, shearing them, examining their tails and feet, segregating the lame, the halt and the blind, cutting out the lambs and the old ewes with bad mouths, and plan to haul them up here in trucks, after giving the foreman a receipt for them. The young and husky sheep we will turn back on the range."

Ken Hobart chuckled. "Why, you're quite a sheep expert, aren't you?"

"Well, somebody had to do it for the girl. I'll place a guard on the wool, and I want you to sack that wool and haul it up to the ranch for safe-keeping."

"You'll be put to quite a bit of expense, Don Jaime."

"I should say so. I have 40 shears, working day and night. Big wool crops. Caraveo tells me. In fact, those sheep should have been sheared six weeks ago, but Tom Antrim wasn't in a hurry. He had the sheep running on a grass range, so they were losing a wool by having it torn off in the brush and brambles."

"Have you authority to take possession in this high-handed manner?"

"Sure! I always make my own authority. Don Prudencio Alviso is Miss Antrim's local representative, and whatever I do will be jake with Prudencio, who's a sheep dealer. I earn his fee with as little labor and worry as possible."

"What are you going to do with the wool?"

"Hold it here, safely, until the market goes up, or I receive orders to sell it immediately."

"Who's going to pay for all this?"

"If it can afford to. If it can't—"

Don Jaime shrugged the indifferent shrug of one who has not been reared to do things on the half-shell, as it were. "Don Prudencio was out to see me yesterday. He has a letter from Miss Antrim. It appears that her uncle, whose ward she is, is very seriously threatened with the loss of his fortune. If I may judge by the indifference she exhibited toward this sheep fortune she has fallen heir to, when the news of the windfall was first broken to her, the fortune about to be lost by her uncle must be considerable. At any rate she's anxious about the sheep now, as I have instructed Don Prudencio to guard them and preserve them. Of course, the old man was as helpless as a child and came to me for advice. I told him to wire her that the sheep were safe with me and to disabuse his placid mind of all worry concerning them."

"But they aren't safe!" Ken Hobart protested. "What's to prevent Bill Dingle from driving to market the sheep still on the range?"

7 COUNTIES INFESTED BY FALL ARMY WORM

Georgia Entomologist Tells How To Fight Newest Insect Pest in State.

Seven Georgia counties are infested with the fall army worm, which early in the week was reported to have come into the state from Florida, it was said Thursday by Manning S. Yeomans, state entomologist.

The counties are Brooks, Cook, Lanier, Lowndes, Mitchell, Tift and Thomas.

Although the pest can be a serious menace, Mr. Yeomans said, if control measures are instituted immediately the worms may be destroyed as quickly as they appear.

Two poisons were recommended by Mr. Yeomans. One consists of one and one-half pounds of arsenate of lead, four pounds of hydrated lime, and 50 gallons of water. They should be thoroughly mixed and all parts of the plant sprayed from the ground up.

The process should be repeated in five days if five per cent infestation is found following the previous spraying.

The other is a poison bran mash, used as a bait. Twenty-five pounds of dry bran, three gallons of water, two quarts of syrup and one pound of Paris green or one pound of white arsenic are used. The water, syrup and Paris green should be thoroughly stirred, then mixed with the bran until every flake of bran is moistened. The mixture should be crumbly, so that it will hold together when squeezed by hand into small balls.

The balls are scattered by hand or from an open-end seeder, using ten pounds of the mixture per acre.

"The worms will consume the poison bait, particularly when green feeding plants are somewhat scarce," Mr. Yeomans said.

Seek Injured Negro In Burglary Effort

Police Thursday were seeking a wounded negro burglar who, with two companions, was foiled early Thursday morning in an attempt to rob the Kraft Soda Company, 50 Boulevard, southeast.

Patrolmen A. D. Poole and J. D. Morrow came upon the three negroes attempting to enter the place and immediately opened fire. Poole and Morrow are convinced one of the negroes was struck by a bullet because they found a trail of blood.

Hospital officials were asked Thursday to report the treatment of any negro for a gunshot wound but no trace of the burglar had been found Thursday night.

Three Negroes Draw Manslaughter Terms

Verdicts of voluntary manslaughter were returned against three defendants Thursday in negro murder cases tried in Fulton superior court.

Arthur Brown, alias "Tighthead," and Will Smith, alias "Hazel," drew terms of from eight to 15 years each on consent verdicts of voluntary manslaughter in Judge Edgar E. Pomeroy's court. Brown and Smith were indicted for murder of West Swanson, who was slain with a shotgun on April 23.

Son Smith, alias Judge Smith, was given five to 10 years on a verdict of voluntary manslaughter in Judge John D. Humphries' court. The defendant was charged with slaying Elliott Tilley on January 25 with a pistol.

Plea for Parole Of Robert Burns Heard by Board

The case of Robert Elliott Burns, Georgia convict who during a period of escape, became prominent as a Chicago publisher, came before the prison board Thursday on an application for a parole and was taken under advisement.

Burns was brought back to Atlanta last year after a former wife had made known his identity to Chicago police. He had escaped from a Georgia chain gang in 1922, shortly after being sentenced to serve from 6 to 10 years for a robbery in which he obtained approximately $4. After his escape he became interested in a Chicago civil magazine, and as its publisher was said to have an income of $30,000 a year.

Only William Schley Howard, Atlanta attorney representing Burns, spoke at the hearing given his case Thursday. Rev. Vincent G. Burns, of Palisades, N. J., a brother, was present but did not address the board.

Mr. Howard said that Burns had been a model prisoner, and that he reimbursed the state and Fulton county for the money spent in returning him. Friends in Chicago are financing and holding his business, Howard said.

The hearing consumed only five minutes.

A letter from Solicitor General John A. Boykin opposed clemency. Other letters on file with the commission include one from former Secretary of the Navy Josephus Daniels, Congressman William C. Wright and Robert Ranspock, of Georgia, and Lorning M. Black, New Jersey, and Lorning M. Black, New York. All spoke well of Burns.

PICTURES OF GOLFER TO WELCOME JONES

Monday when Bobby Jones will be tendered a great reception by the city of Atlanta as a "Welcome Home," he will be greeted by his own likeness, smiling out from the windows of every business house located along the line of march of the parade which will be the feature of the reception.

Reprints from a photo gravure portrait of the great golfer which appeared in a recent Sunday's edition of The Constitution, have been made and will be given to business firms along the route of the parade. Representatives of The Constitution will call on business houses and will present them with one or more of these reprints, done in the conventional and artistic brown, to be displayed in their windows.

The route to be followed by the parade will be from Baker street down Peachtree and Whitehall to Mitchell street and from that point to the city hall.

A limited number of the photo gravure prints are at The Constitution and any downtown business house which desires to have one for display purposes may procure one by telephoning The Constitution office and asking for the display advertising department.

Billups Improving After Long Illness

J. P. Billups, general passenger agent of the Atlanta & West Point and the Georgia railroads, returned to his home, 47 The Prado, Thursday, after several weeks' confinement at St. Joseph's infirmary. He was said to be recuperating rapidly Thursday and well on the road to complete recovery.

EAST POINT SALESMAN BADLY HURT IN CRASH

W. T. Flowers Near Death After Accident Near Adamsville.

Critically injured when the car he was driving left the roadway on a sharp curve near Adamsville Thursday and plunged through a thicket of undergrowth to crash and turn over against a large tree, W. T. Flowers, of 420 Farris street, East Point, a salesman, was believed to have small chance of recovery by Grady hospital physicians late Thursday afternoon. Flowers was seriously hurt about the head.

Three companions also were injured. Arthur Shuteley, 18, 248 Wellington street, receiving a broken leg and hip, while Herman Doyal, 23, 256 Wellington street, and Fred Gabriel, 22, of a nearby Wellington street address, sustained numerous minor cuts and bruises. All four of the injured were taken to Grady by a passing motorist.

According to the injured companions of Flowers the car became uncontrollable after skidding on an abrupt curve of the Gordon road near Adamsville. It left the highway, tore through the undergrowth and was demolished against a tree.

The condition of M. J. Smith, 76, of 800 Spring street, who was seriously hurt when the car in which he was riding, driven by Frank Postlethwaite, a Tech student from Mexico City, was in collision with a Grady hospital ambulance at Spring street and North avenue Wednesday afternoon, also was considered critical at Grady hospital Thursday.

Charles Stewart Harmon, son of E. B. Harmon of Hapeville, who Wednesday was struck by an automobile on Main street in East Point, receiving a broken leg, was reported as recovering at home Thursday. He was treated at Grady and later dismissed. First reports stated that the driver of the car which struck the lad had failed to stop, but later it was said that the driver, a young woman of East Point, not only stopped but picked up the injured boy and rushed him to a doctor, where first aid was given.

Atlanta Greeks To Hear Lecture On Motherland

A verbal picture of the Greece of today, revealing the vast influence that American commerce and science are having in remodeling the ancient Hellenic civilization, will be presented to the Greek community of Atlanta Monday night when Augustus E. Constantine, well-known young architect and president of the local chapter, Order of the Ahepa, addresses the monthly meeting of the organization.

Mr. Constantine, who headed the Atlanta Ahepa delegation that left here on March 17 to participate in the American-Hellenic pilgrimage to Greece for the centennial celebration of Greece's independence from Turkish rule, returned to the city a few days ago.

While abroad Mr. Constantine made an extensive tour of Greece and visited Italy, southern France and Portugal, studying architectural types in the original. While he also devoted part of his stay abroad to pursuing architectural courses at the Athens Polytechnic Institute, Mr. Constantine found time to include a visit to the pope; Archbishop Chrysostomos, head of the Greek church, and Premier Venizelos of Greece, with whom he had dinner.

Commenting on the modernization movement in Greece, Mr. Constantine explained, "America, of course, influences Greece tremendously. This, I believe, is due to the fact that the 500,000 or more Greeks who live in the United States are constantly having contact with their motherland. Greece imports more commodities from America than from any other nation in the world, according to authoritative statistics, and America, reciprocating, is also a heavy purchaser of Greece's staple commodities."

"Wherever you travel in Greece you will be struck to see that 97 per cent of automobiles, cameras and photographic materials, toilet goods, gramophones, radios and similar commodities are of American manufacture."

In his talk Monday night Mr. Constantine will describe to his fellow Hellenes the great construction projects under way in Greece, many of which are being done by American corporations. Speaking of the "new Greece," Mr. Constantine said that, while traveling in Macedonia and the northeastern states of Greece, he observed "hundreds of American tractors plowing the ground and numerous har-

82d Will Give Luncheon Today

The first luncheon of a weekly series instituted by the eighty-second Division Association of Atlanta will be held at 12:30 o'clock this afternoon at the Ansley hotel and regularly thereafter, it was announced by Scott Candler, recently elected president of the association.

The first reunion of the eighty-second division is planned for September 28 and will be held in Atlanta if tentative plans for a three-day convention to be held at Camp Gordon September 26, 27 and 28 should be changed.

Resting and threshing machines substituting for the obsolete methods employed heretofore in the harvesting of wheat and other agricultural activities.

"Greece has also been influenced by America in another direction," the Atlanta architect stated. "Her schools and universities having been invaded by the athletic spirit so prevalent in the American schools today, are becoming a vital factor in the development of the Hellenic youth. Hellas is slowly but steadily on her way to ultimate happiness and prosperity," Mr. Constantine declared.

181 RESERVE OFFICERS TRAIN AT M'PHERSON

First of Three Study Camps for O. R. C. Now in Progress.

The first of three periods of practical study and defensive maneuvers for young members of the officers' reserve corps of the army is under way at Fort McPherson, with 181 student officers attending daily classes in defensive warfare, field work and other phases of military tactics. The personnel of the students represents virtually all branches of business and professional life and includes citizens from every state in the fourth corps area.

Each training period will last two weeks, it was said, and all studies will be under the direction of Colonel D. M. Cheston, acting commanding officer of the Twenty-second infantry, who is assisted by a complete staff of regular army officers. The first period commenced July 6 and will end July 20, following which a new class of approximately 200 reserve officers will go into camp for a similar period. The third and final training period will be begun August 4. Similar student camps are being held in other army corps areas.

Stops Pain Without Deadening Nerves

Of course you want immediate relief from pain, but why use strong drugs that deaden your nerves? Capudine relieves headaches, neuralgia, etc., just as quickly and soothes the nerves. Capudine acts at once because it is liquid. Solid remedies are slower; your system must first dissolve before absorbing them.

When in pain take two teaspoonfuls of Capudine in water. You will be delighted with the speedy relief. Thousands keep a bottle of Capudine always handy at home and at their place of business. Why not follow this wise example and avoid suffering? All drug stores in single doses and 10c, 30c and 60c bottles.—(adv.)

A deserved tribute will be paid to the memory of Miss Mildred Rutherford, one of Georgia's distinguished educators, and outstanding citizens Wednesday afternoon at 4 o'clock, July 16, when the Decatur, College Park and Atlanta U. D. C. chapters unite to celebrate her birthday, at the Atlanta chapter house on Juniper street.

An interesting program has been arranged in which the presidents of the several chapters will have part. Colonel Carlton Binns will speak and Mrs. Oscar McKenzie, of Montezuma, will pay a tribute to the work of Miss Rutherford in the U. D. C. Mrs. A. B. Sullivan will sing and the Atlanta chapter chorus organized to sing old southern songs, will make its first appearance. A feature of the program will be the presentation by the old guard of the flag used by the Atlanta Cadets to the museum of the Atlanta chapter in honor of "Miss Millie," as Miss Rutherford was called. Cordial invitation is extended to the members of the chapters, former pupils, friends and relatives to attend.

Hostesses To Honor Miss Virginia Squibb.

Misses Sarah Ison and Edith Marshall will be hostesses at a swimming party at East Lake Country Club this afternoon in honor of Miss Virginia Squibb, of Cincinnati, Ohio, the guest of Miss Sue Burnett. Eighth Ward League of Women Voters Sponsors Lectures on 'Child Psychology'

Mothers of young children will be interested in a series of lectures on "Child Psychology" to be given next week under the auspices of the Eighth Ward League of Women Voters in the ballroom of the Biltmore hotel beginning Monday, July 14, at 3:30 o'clock. Monday Southwesterly into Mitchell Street; thence Southwesterly, along the Southwesterly side of said eight (8) foot alley one hundred and one (101) feet, more or less, to the intersection of the "Golden Gate" bridge; thence Southwesterly, along the line of said Golden Gate bridge thirty-eight (38) feet, more or less, to the Southwesterly corner of what was known in 1887 as the "East Main Lot"; thence Southwesterly, along the line of said Golden Gate bridge lot fifty-five (55) feet, more or less, to the Northeastern corner of said Pendleton lot; thence Southwesterly, along said Pendleton lot and parallel with the line of said Pendleton lot, fifty-three (53) feet to the beginning point. Being all of the property conveyed by McNaught and Scortchello to Julia L. Powell, Feb. 4, 1920, by deed recorded in Book 296, of the Deed Records of Fulton County, Georgia, and all of the property conveyed by H. T. Imman to Mrs. Jeanie F. Powell, by deed dated Sept. 12, 1929, recorded Deed Book 117, Page 86, of Fulton County Records; and being the same property conveyed by Mrs. S. S. Rivers to Chamberlin-Johnson-DuBose Company by deed dated July 15, 1936, in Book 970, Page 285 of Fulton County Records.

The speakers will be Miss Willette Allen, Miss Grace Fry and Dr. Ralph Harper, who are taking part in the Emory University summer school. It is designed that these discussions shall be informal and helpful. The league of Women Voters maintains that everything pertaining to the education of women and children is of great value to citizenship, and it is hoped that the lectures will be well attended, since there will be only one hour, half of which will be given over to questions and discussions of problems.

It is hoped that mothers will realize that it behooves them to take advantage of every opportunity to become better trained themselves in order to have better trained children. There will be a charge of $2.50 for the course of three lectures, and single tickets are $1. Tickets may be secured at league headquarters or from Mrs. Sinclair Jacobson or Mrs. T. M. Stubbs. More than 200 letters with reply post-cards have been sent out to a selected group of women to inform them of the value of these lectures.

Miss Martha Street and Mr. Mann Are Wed at Quiet Home Ceremony

The marriage of Miss Martha Claudia Street, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Thomas Street, to Joseph Charles Mann, son of Mrs. Charles Adair Mann, was beautifully solemnized last evening at the home of the bride's parents on Weyman avenue. The Rev. Vivian L. Bray, pastor of the Nellie Dodd Methodist church, performed the ceremony in the presence of a gathering of relatives and friends.

The improvised altar in the parlor, where the marriage vows were read, was banked with palms and cacti, ferns, against which cathedral candles, interlarded with tall floor baskets of white gladioli stood in bold relief. The aisle posts, which marked the path of the bridal party down the stairs, were ornamented with clusters of white gladioli tied with streamers of white satin ribbon.

Miss Ruth Chambers, pianist, and Mrs. Walker O. Browne, soloist, rendered an appropriate program of nuptial music including among the selections "I Love You Truly" and "Oh, Promise Me," and the piano selections, "Sabbath Chimes" and "Indian Love Call." During the ceremony "Ah, Sweet Mystery of Life" was used as the dulcet-toned accompaniment to the wedding service. The bridal chorus from "Lohengrin" headed the approach of the bridal party.

Miss Louise Mann, sister of the bride, and her only attendant, were a becoming model of Nile green organdie fashioned along princess lines featuring the sleeveless basque waist and long full skirt. She carried a sheaf of Columbia roses, budle and larkspur, tied with streamers of pink and orchid satin ribbon.

The bride, who was never more lovely, entered with her father, John Thomas Street, by whom she was given in marriage, and was met at the altar by the groom and his best man, Roy Mann, brother of the groom. She was crowned in her classic princess model of white chiffon fashioned with high waist and long graceful full skirt. The round neck edged with a narrow ruffle of chiffon was a feature of the lovely model.

Mrs. Street, mother of the bride, wore a princess model of blue printed chiffon offset with a shoulder spray of Ophelia roses and lilies of the valley.

Mrs. Mann, mother of the bridegroom, was gowned in powder blue chiffon. A shoulder spray of Ophelia roses and lilies of the valley adorned her shoulder.

Following the service the bride and groom left by motor for points of interest in Florida. The bride wore an ensemble of tan crepe offset with a blouse of lighter shade. A close-fitting tan felt hat completed the costume. Following the wedding trip Mr. and Mrs. Mann will make their home in Atlanta.

Atlanta Girls Win In Camp Contest.

MAYLAND, Tenn., July 10.—Atlanta girls have been outstanding in camp activities at Camp Nakanawa and a diving, swimming and canoeing contest took place Saturday afternoon. Miss Emily Winslow, of the Amazon side, did a running front dive for form, and made an excellent showing in the relay race for speed.

One of the amusing features of the canoeing contest was the jousting. Two canoes containing one jouster and a stern-man each, tilt with bows to try to upset one another. Miss Frances Woolford was especially good at this sport, being the only one out of eight not to be overturned.

An exciting relay race, using the speed crawl, was won by the Valkyries, and Miss Elizabeth Mitchell played an excellent game on the Valkyrie rarity basketball team, and Miss Elizabeth Mitchell played running center on the Amazon side.

Miss Annie Laura Dana Weds Mr. Pickett at Church Ceremony

The marriage of Miss Annie Laura Dana and Thaddeus Jackson Pickett was solemnized Thursday afternoon at 5:30 o'clock at the Church of the Incarnation, Rev. G. W. Gasque performing the ceremony. The church was handsomely decorated with palms and tall baskets filled with pastel shaded gladioli and ferns. Seven-branched candelabra holding lighted tapers shed a soft light over the wedding party. A program of appropriate nuptial music was rendered by Miss Maude Eberhardt, organist of the church. Preceding the ceremony Mrs. O. N. Dana, mother of the bride, sang "At Dawning." The bride wore a gown of "Lohengrin" and the wedding march by Mendelssohn was the recessional.

The ushers, John Weems and Nelson Dana, brother of the bride, entered first, followed by Miss Louise Dana, sister of the bride, who acted as bridesmaid. The groomsmen, Franklin Humphries and Garrett Keyes, preceded the bride. Mrs. Frances Dana, sister of the bride, who acted as maid of honor.

The bridesmaid's gown was of orchid chiffon fashioned along both sides with picture hat and linen slippers to match. Her bouquet was pink roses and swainsons.

The maid of honor wore pale green chiffon fashioned along both sides with picture hat and linen slippers to match. Her bouquet was pink roses and swainsons. Irving Hardy, of Los Angeles, Cal., acted as best man.

The bride was given in marriage by her father, Mr. O. N. Dana. She was radiantly lovely in a gown of rose-beige chiffon with deep lace yoke and fashioned along princess lines. The bride's hat was a picture model of beige horsehair braid, trimmed with chiffon velvet roses. Her slippers were of beige linen. She carried a bouquet of sweetheart roses, showered with lilies of the valley and satin ribbon.

Following the ceremony Mr. and

Fowler Defeats Oliver, Defending Champion, in State Amateur

BOB'S POWDER NOT DAMP, DANFORTH SAYS

FOWLER BEATS JOHN OLIVER AT EAST LAKE

Many Atlantans Advance in Tourney for State Amateur Title.

By Roy White.

Seven promising Atlanta golfers and one Savannah youngster have won their way to the quarter-final round of the thirteenth Georgia state amateur golf tournament which will be played today on the East Lake Country Club course. During the afternoon hours, the semi-final round will be played. The finals are scheduled to be played Saturday.

Lee Fowler, Berrien Moore, Jr., L. R. Hunter and Gene Cook, from East Lake; Vexy Rainwater, Sr., and Julius Hughes, from Druid Hills, and Dave Black, of Capital City, are the localists, while Dean Smith, of Savannah, represents the out-of-town entries.

John Oliver, of Valdosta, the present champion, was eliminated by Lee Fowler, who played a steady, consistent game Thursday. Fowler was 2 up at the turn, despite his poor putting on several of the greens. Oliver played well but did not seem to be hitting the ball as solidly as in former matches.

Their cards:
Par, out . . . 454 445 445—34
Oliver, out . . . 453 444 442—32
Fowler, out . . . 454 445 445—39
Par, in . . . 434 444 444—36—72
Oliver, in . . . 434 444 444—37—70
Fowler, in . . . 435 445 445—39—70

PLAY TODAY.
Fowler meets Hughes, Moore plays Rainwater, Hunter engages Smith, the Savannahian, and Black meets Cook. The semi-finals will be played during the afternoon and the championship flight is scheduled to start at 2 o'clock. The first four named are in the upper bracket and the others in the lower.

Practically all of the players left in the running have played true to form and Hughes, Black and Smith, who tied for low medal, are still in the tournament.

Two of the best matches Thursday in the first flight were between Gene Cook and Pete Barnes and Dean Smith and Herbert Edwards. Cook turned 2 up on Barnes and after playing mediocre golf for three holes settled down and took the match on the 17th green. Smith shot spectacular golf to beat Edwards on the 19th green.

BEST SCORE.
L. R. Hunter had the best score of the day with a 33, two under par, on the first nine. He eliminated Kerton Smith, runner-up last year. Dave Black was three down to Brooks Holloway, of Cedarhurst, but rallied on the back nine to win, two up at the 18th tee. He hit a high drive which landed on the concrete drive in front of the clubhouse and bounced near the lower edge of the ninth green. The spectacular shot came when he lifted the ball over the edge of the clubhouse, over the practice green and onto the green only 18 feet from the cup.

Two putts gave him a half for the hole and a victory in the match.

YOUNGSTER WINS.
Tommy Barnes, the youngest golfer in the tournament, turned in the most interesting round of the day. He is only 14 years of age and weighs less than 100 pounds. Yet he defeated Brooks Nell, a veteran East Lake golfer, 3-1.

On the first nine Barnes scored 37, one over par, and had six one-putts out of the nine. On the back nine he did not fare so well. His second shots caught the traps guarding the greens and his six-putt lead was gradually cut down. He rallied near the end to win the match on the 17th green with three up and one to go.

Two good matches in the second flight were played Thursday. Roby Robinson was three down to Dick Winchell at the 13th green but rallied to win, 2-1. Charlie Yates was three

Louisiana To Play Mexico October 4

ALEXANDRIA, La., July 10.—(AP) Definite announcement that the University of Mexico will play a football game with Louisiana college here October 4 was made today by college officials. The game was made today in Mexico City last fall before a crowd of 20,000. The Americans won from the Mexicans, 59 to 0.

Louisiana college will play again in Mexico City in 1931.

Bob Hays Named Wake Forest Coach

DURHAM, N. C., July 10.—(AP) Bob Hays, former Missouri university athlete, was elected a member of the Wake Forest college coaching staff here today at a meeting of the Wake Forest athletic council. Jack Boylin, former Wake Forest athlete and for five years High Point college coach, was named full-time graduate manager of athletics.

Louisville Beats Crawfordville

LOUISVILLE, Ga., July 10.—Louisville defeated Crawfordville, 8 to 5, here this afternoon. Hartley, Louisville hurler, was hit in the head by a pitched ball and was given medical attention.

INTERLACHEN COUNTRY CLUB, MINNEAPOLIS, Minn., July 10.—Bobby Jones was not the only one who threw down the gauntlet today in the first round of the national open. Bobby's challenging 71 was answered by a salvo of heavy artillery from the ranks of the old guard. MacDonald Smith staged a spectacular rally, coming home in 33, to push past Bobby by one stroke. Tommy Armour did the same, roaring down the home stretch like a runaway thoroughbred.

After failing two strokes behind par, old Walter Hagen, the ex-king himself, staged a stirring uprising on the last nine and finished a stroke behind Robert. Harry Cooper and Horton Smith, of the new generation, cantered in with 72's.

Bill Mehlhorn, Willie MacFarlane, Johnny Farrell, Leo Diegel, Jim Barnes, Al Espinosa, Gene Sarazen and Joe Turnesa finished so close up that they must be considered decidedly in the thick of it. Farrell, after taking a horrible 8 on No. 1, flashed the most inspiring exhibition of courage of all of them by finishing the first nine in even 4's.

The old guard made no idle boast when they threatened to subdue the Jones boy this time. They fought like a passel of tigers today. It looks like the greatest links battle in history actually is under way.

NO PLACE FOR YOUNGSTERS.

Meanwhile, the erstwhile potent amateurs—George Von Elm, Harrison Johnston and Chick Evans—were left far back with scores of 80 or worse. This is no tournament for small boys.

NICK CULLOP HERO OF MILLERS.

Nick Cullop is an inevitable hero. In whatever city he happens to play baseball he becomes an idol. Nick has that quality about him that without seeming effort dramatizes him before the eyes of the populace.

It was no surprise, therefore, to find Nicholas Cullopolus, the blond bludgeon breaker, sitting on the dais in Minneapolis. He is rated the spark plug of the Millers. He is credited by baseball men here as being mainly responsible for the glorious climb from last place.

Mike Kelly was ready to trade him once but he would not part with Nick now for a grain elevator.

BEAT BAD BREAKS.

Battling what seemed to be just a succession of bad breaks, Cullop has staged a comeback since May that demonstrates his courage. Atlantans know of the sad background to his life in the loss of his children and serious illness of his wife.

Then in the opening game of the season he was hit on the head by a pitched ball and nearly killed. That made him gun shy at the plate. Pitchers took advantage of his temerity and shot fast balls at his head to break his spirit. His batting average fell away to .200.

Then he got going. He began to forget his injury. Now he is hitting .384 and has hit 25 home runs. He will be at Bunty Brief's record this year, they say.

SOUNDS LIKE HOME.

Nick is playing in congenial company, too. Most of them are well known in the Southern league. Ernie Smith, Elmer Smith, Andy High, Bernie Neis, John Brillheart, George Dumon, Carmen Hill, Wes Griffith, Delmar Lundgren. That list vaguely suggests home, does it not?

THE STRONGER SEX?

What is the so-called stronger sex coming to anyhow in the way of dress? Pastel shades in silk underthings were bad enough. These sweet polo shirts of rayon are cute but may do in a push.

But here at Interlachen, in the gallery, appeared a thing that walked like a man. It wore blue beret, blue smoked glasses on the arched bridge of a long nose, a light blue silk polo shirt, blue shorts with a stripe down the side, darker blue golf stockings that came just short of the knobby knees.

Here and there in the gallery strong men were seen to clench their fists and grind their teeth. A swanky golf course of course is no place for rude outbursts of mob violence but if that bird ever should happen to drop in to watch a Saturday afternoon game in Almand Park between pennant contenders in the Manufacturers league—page Chief Beavers.

TOLLEY GREAT FAVORITE.

If Cyril Tolley were an American golfer he would be almost as big a popular favorite as Bobby Jones. His rare qualities are lost in an English environment. England does not publicize and humanize its athletes as we do ours.

Tolley is a striking figure. He has hair that is wavy. It is grey at the temples but the beaming youth in his face belies it. And when he hits a golf ball it gets away from there in a hurry and is a long time coming to earth. His belting from the tee gives galleries here a big kick.

His golf, too, is sound all the way and he never can be ignored in figuring on any tournament.

SCOTCH GAME?

The old Scottish game is thoroughly Americanized now. In a New York paper today it says down in the notes from a golf club called Prescott Hills, "J. Sitz defeated Dr. Sidlovsky 1 up; S. J. Haimowicz defeated Dr. Kobre 6 and 5; E. Scheerer defeated Dr. Spiegelgrass 3 and 2." The scores read the same in any language.

STRIBLING-SCOTT.

A letter from Jeff Dickson, the Jackson, Miss., boy who has made good in England and France as a boxing promoter, shows in the letterhead that Young Stribling, of America, and Phil Scott, of England, will fight July

CRACKERS TAKE SECOND IN ROW FROM VOLS, 6-5

Dobbsmen Play Good Ball To Down Foes; Two Homers Hit.

By Herb Clark.

Old orthodox Johnny Dobbs led his regulation nine Crackers to a 6-to-5 victory over Clarence (Pants) Rowland, the shifty, and his Volunteers from Nashville at Spiller field Thursday afternoon. Incidentally, the Crackers earned the sole rights to fifth place by so doing.

Two heads, aver the sooth-sayers and the seers, are better than one. And, they add, just to have an "out" in times of trouble, too many cooks spoil the broth.

Clarence (Pants) Rowland holds with the latter school to the extent of admitting that too many baseball players are sometimes not much help. He threw an even dozen of his best into the breach at Spiller field Thursday afternoon, but Pants and his dozen could do no more than come within one run of the Crackers' total.

The score might just as well have been 6 to 3. But for the fact that Red Carlyle laced easily over to nab one of Jim Poole's efforts toward left field in the eighth frame and, lacing, was forced to stand by as a lucky pop carried the pellet into the republican stands. The score would have been 6 to 3. For the blow, not good for more than two bases with careful playing, came with Marquard on base.

NOT EXCITED.

Johnny Dobbs and his Crackers refused to get excited about the matter, however. Polvogt had done some home-run hitting of his own. They had hammered and pecked and slugged their way to six runs previous to "Horsehoe Jim's" effort. And they saw with a certain knowledge that they could cope with the situation from then on out.

They had scored those six runs in patches to take the lead away from the Vols twice. Once in the first inning, for but a moment. And once—and for all—in the fourth.

They had taken "Zeke" Zumbro over the hurdles for eleven sound smacks and six runs in the space of six innings. They had let Relief Hurler Head coast along through two innings with nothing but a pair of thrills. And they seemed to have the idea that should runs be needed, this same Mr. Head would be kind enough to see that they were made available.

JUST A BREEZE.

In cold fact, they seemed to have the idea that taking two straight from the Vols would not be so much of a task, after all.

The Vols started off as though the task was going to be impossible. As though Ray Francis, Johnny Dobbs' ace pitcher, would be succeeded by another ere long.

The Vols were only fooling, however.

DUMAS SINGLES.

A single run in the first inning, came as Dumas led off with a single and Carter followed with a like effort to hint dire things for this late Francis. Marquard popped to Sheehan but old Jim Poole came along with a long sacrifice fly which brought Dumas home.

Atlanta did the first lead-taking in the second half of the same frame. A walk issued Sheehan, singles by Rosenthal, Carlyle and Lamotte, and a sacrifice fly by Shirley were utilized to produce a pair of markers and a one-run lead.

LEAD VANISHES.

That one run lead vanished under a short-lived storm flowing from the left enclosure, however. Standart worked his way to first by watching four balls float by and to second by taking advantage of Freddie Polvogt.

Not a Bad Pair, It Seems

Bobby Jones, shown above, talking with his smiling, brown-armed caddy in the national open tournament at Interlachen, shot a 71, one under par, to stay in the forefront of the field. Donovan Dale, the pro caddy, must have done a great job of caddyding to be on hand through all the mad rush of the gallery.

BOBBY'S CADDY TELLS OF ROUND

Youngster Describes Spectacular Shot—Says 'We' Did Pretty Well.

By Donoval Dale.

(Written for the Associated Press.)

INTERLACHEN CLUB, MINNEAPOLIS, Minn., July 10.—(AP)—We started pretty well today—I mean Bobby Jones did—and considering that since they had graciously given him the rope with which to hang them far be it from him not to spring the trap.

There are just five leagues which refused to submit to the draft and they have just been served with the ultimatum by the major leagues. The ultimatum declares that if the five independent baseball stores do not join in with the big chain stores that the majors will not buy or sell, loan or trade players with them in the future.

This is a very serious threat and if it occurred in any business but the baseball business there would be loud yelps for the federal commission to do something about restraint of trade and there would be calls for someone to take a big stick and smash a trust. But this is the baseball business.

There is no reason at all for the major leagues to have what amounts to control of all the ball players in the world except that the major leagues do not want to pay such high prices as are demanded by the non-selective leagues.

FIVE LEAGUES.

The Pacific Coast league, American association, the International league, the Three-I and the Western leagues are the so-called non-selective leagues. The majors cannot draft a player from them unless the player was sent there by a major league. And have they been getting prices for their players? Oh, yes, they have. Real prices.

In all other minor leagues the majors have the right to draft any ball player unsold at the end of the season. The price is $4,000 for a draft player.

The first draft war was in 1921 and at that time all the Southern players were sent to the majors.

JONES POSTS 71 ON FIRST DAY IN TITLE DRIVE

Shadow of Great Amateur Portentous Again in Open Tourney.

By Ed Danforth.

CONSTITUTION SPORTS EDITOR.
INTERLACHEN COUNTRY CLUB, MINNEAPOLIS, Minn., July 10.—Robert Tyre Jones, Jr., today laid on the table the American open championship title he won a year ago, drew his battered driver and set out on the first quarter of the campaign to win it back again.

Traversing an undulating course that was as hot as a barbecue pit, Jones compiled a 71, one under par. This score was rung up on the board under the trees, where all might see that the "young master" was right. It was passed from lip to lip until it had penetrated to the most distant green. The greatest golfer in America heard it, paused and then bent his backs to their putts with less enthusiasm. The shadow of the great amateur was portentous again. That 71 meant that the man Jones was in the fight again for blood, and his powder was not damp.

At the finish of his round about 4 o'clock, the young man who had traveled from Atlanta to England and brought back two major championships stood sternly up in the path of his traditional American rivals. The 71 was one of the best opening rounds Bobby had ever shot in an open championship. It was a powerful thrust toward his enterprise of winning third major title within three months and setting another all-time record in golf.

It was one of those precise, methodical rounds of golf that Bobby Jones can deliver when drawn within himself and poised in that remoteness he acquires when concentrating on his shots. He sank no long putts; he had no lucky breaks.

MIGHT HAVE BEEN 66.

If he had experienced one of his lucky days his score easily could have been five strokes less. Putts that might have gone down for birdies quit rolling an inch from the cup more than once.

Bobby made but one precious mechanical error. He missed a second shot on No. 10 and his ball ducked into a trap short of the green. That cost him one stroke. It was the only hole on which he required more than par. He had two birdies. He played all the other holes exactly in par. When his drives bounded into the rough, as well-hits balls often do here, he invariably recovered well. But for the terrific heat of the day, a greater crowd would have been out of his supply of physical strength. On the other hand he might have been distracted by discomfort of the torrid day that he found no time to worry over his game. Perhaps golf problems today seemed unimportant issues to be left to instinct and habit to solve.

While some of the professionals cracked under the double pressure of weather and erratic play, others fought grimly to keep the striking distance of the flying southerner. Not all of them were discouraged by Bobby's fine start; in fact, some said he had been in the hole and would give them no more trouble. But the fact remains that the 71 will not act as a tonic to the others. Such a score is not calculated to encourage them to begin planning for winter exhibition tours.

Bobby left the course tonight loquacious as a greater crowd than he did when he started in the forenoon.

CROWD EARLY.

For an hour before Jones was scheduled to start in company with Jack Hutchins, a veteran professional, spectators disposed themselves on the terrace back of the first tee. As succeeding thousands arrived by motor and trolley car they streamed on down toward the green. Within an hour before his time was posted, the 478-yard fairway was lined from tee to green with solid walls of people. The sun blazed and an open beach furnace. What breezes drifted in were shut off by the human walls. The men were coatless. The red galleries, the gallery marshals carrying fishing poles with which they formed restraining lines had good practice keeping the mob in hand. Horton Smith playing with Ralph Beach drove off just before Bobby; the crowd took on renewed interest for they were following the passing pairs with their programs and knew Bobby was up next. A few rushed off behind Horton after he made his second shot and watched him putt out par 4. The sun blazed and an open beach furnace. What breezes drifted in were shut off by the human walls. Bryan Grant Beats J. Halverstadt To Enter Memphis Semi-Finals

MOONEY, SUTTER, HINES ADVANCE IN DIXIE MEET

Hard Fought Battle Marks Quarter-Final Play in Men's Singles.

By Dillon Graham,

Associated Press Sports Writer.
MEMPHIS, Tenn., July 10.—(AP)—Under a broiling sun and before a packed gallery, Wilmer Hines, of Columbia, S. C., and Robert Bryan, of Chattanooga, produced the hardest-fought duel of the southern tennis tournament here today before Hines finally battled his way to the semi-final round of the men's singles tomorrow. Other favorites had little trouble winning quarter-final matches.

Hines was forced to use all his racket skill to subdue Bryan in two long sets, 8-6, 9-7. It was a ding-dong affair all the way with one and then the other forging ahead for narrow leads.

Bryan led off in the first set, 4-3, but finally took the set with several spectacular placements. In the second set it was Bryan who rallied and carried the match into extra games. With the score 5-1 against him he started rushing the net on every point to win four games in a row. From then it was evenly fought until Hines pulled away from a 7-all point to capture two straight games and the match.

Displaying a beautiful assortment of strokes, Cliff Sutter, of New Orleans, brushed aside Bob Crossland, of Charlotte, N. C., 6-0, 6-1, while the defending title holder, Bryan Grant, of Atlanta, won from Jimmy Halverstadt, Atlanta, by the same scores.

The sun proved too much for Al Halverstadt, Atlanta, and he was forced to default to Jack Mooney, Atlanta, at the close of the first set which Mooney had won, 6-4.

Halverstadt was close to exhaustion when he finally gave up. The day's results made a perfect draw for the semi-finals tomorrow. Bryan, seeded No. 1, meets Hines, ranked third, while Sutter, seeded second, takes on Mooney, who placed fourth.

Veteran Jockey Returns to Saddle

NEW YORK, July 10.—(AP)—George Fidler, veteran jockey, has returned to the saddle.

Seven months ago down at Hialeah park, Miami, George received a broken leg in a bad smash up. There were those who said the brilliant little star would never straddle another horse. But yesterday fields was up on Ruby Keeler at Empire City and sent the filly down the stretch and past the judges' stand in front of her field to receive a rousing reception.

Jim Fitzsimmons Will Groom 'Fox'

NEW YORK, July 10.—(AP)—Sunday Jim Fitzsimmons, veteran trainer of Gallant Fox, is en route to Chicago to give the champion three-year-old his final preparation for the classic to be run at Arlington Park Saturday. The son of Sir Galahad III arrived on the scene of his next race Monday and has been working out under the guidance of an assistant trainer and Jockey Earl Sande.

Hornsby Denies He is 'Out for Good'

ST. LOUIS, July 10.—(AP)—Under instructions from his physician Rogers Hornsby, slugging Chicago National's second baseman, who suffered a broken ankle Decoration Day, plans to report to the Cubs July 16 to start working out, he said today. Hornsby, at his home here, branded as absolutely false reports that he would be out for good. He said he expects to be back in the Cubs' lineup in about three weeks.

Enterprise Beats Yankee at Newport

NEWPORT, R. I., July 10.—(AP)—Enterprise defeated Yankee by 35 seconds in their 30-mile race over a triangular course off here today. Westman finished 38 seconds ahead of Whirlwind over the same course. The races were the fourth of an official observation series to determine the defender of the America's cup in an international race with Sir Thomas Lipton's Shamrock V in September.

lation of air on the last nine holes which are situated on higher ground sa' down in the shade of trees and let Bobby finish the 18th almost alone. And there with thousands banked around the home hole, Bobby took a grip on himself and fired a perfect drive, a fine approach from an extremely difficult angle and two putts to close out his first round with a par 4 for 71.

Hutchison, troubled only by erratic tee shots, had 84. That shows what can happen to anyone on this course, which demands so much accuracy.

Then with Chick Ridley's gigantic form striding before him, Bobby pushed through the crowd, eyes set straight ahead, mouth open from weariness and disappeared into the clubhouse. On a cool day the round would have left him fresh as a daisy. But the diabolical torque out of him what his well-nigh perfect game might have saved.

Tennis Association Stands Firm and Bars Bill Tilden

WRITING RULE PROHIBITS PLAY BY CHAMPION

(Copyright, 1936, by The Constitution for the North American Newspaper Alliance.)
PARIS, July 10.—The United States Lawn Tennis Association stands firm in its latest controversy with William T. Tilden, II, and will not relax its rules that he may play in the Davis cup matches and at the same time write daily news dispatches on the tournament, whether Tilden's participation would be a material factor in bringing the cup back to America or not.

This was the decision announced here today by Fitz-Eugene Dixon, non-playing captain of the United States Davis cup team.

"We are very disappointed," Mr. Dixon said, "but our association cannot change its rules and decisions to suit one man. Of course, we understand Mr. Tilden's position, and we cannot blame him for sticking to his engagements."

"On the association's side, there is no possibility whatever of our changing our conditions. I don't know who will play in Mr. Tilden's stead. The association has not yet definitely chosen its team."

Tilden is under contract to the North American Newspaper Alliance and the Bell Syndicate to cover the Davis cup matches in daily cables, and he declined to play on the Davis cup team if he could not keep this agreement, although John N. Wheeler, general manager of the Alliance and president of the Syndicate, offered to release him.

VOLUNTARY OFFER.
(Copyright, 1936, by The Constitution for the North American Newspaper Alliance.)
NEW YORK, July 9.—Joseph W. Wear, chairman of the Davis cup committee of the U. S. Lawn Tennis Association, here today made a telephone conversation with Fitz-Eugene Dixon on the Tilden situation, and Mr. Dixon told him Tilden had the impression that pressure had been brought to bear to induce the North American Newspaper Alliance and the Bell Syndicate to waive their contract rights.

Mr. Wear assured Mr. Dixon that this was not the case, the offer of John N. Wheeler to waive the agreement having been entirely voluntary and based on Mr. Wheeler's idea of good sportsmanship.

Mr. Wear still hopes Tilden will play, but he feels that the whole matter is now one to be settled between Tilden and Dixon.

FLIERS BREAK Jinx.
PENSACOLA, Fla., July 10.—Pensacola's fliers broke their eight-game losing jinx by beating Montgomery, 10 to 3, in the series opener today.

The fliers hit Woods and Mers hard, Kendall leading the attack with four hits, while Sharp kept Montgomery's bats out.

The game was halted for a half-hour by rain. The regular umpires failed to show up and Settlement and Clowers, pitchers, acted in their stead.

Florida Champion Wins Crown Here

Harry Johnson Takes Dixie Amateur in Extra Shoot With Stars.

By Max Hall.
Harry Johnson, state champion of Florida, won the southern amateur play target championship in 16-day singles Thursday when he defeated Paul Earle, of Starr, S. C., in a shoot-off on the second day of the southern handicap at the Atlanta Gun Club.

The two marksmen had tied with scores of 197x200. Johnson broke 25 targets in a row in the shoot-off, while Earle dropped his tenth bird for a 24.

The new champion hails from Haines City, Fla. Earle, the runner-up, has won the state championship of South Carolina several times.

After losing the singles title in the shoot-off with Johnson, Earle did nothing at all but knock off a cool perfect 50 in a practice round of doubles.

SCORES ARE GOOD.
Scores for the day's shooting were very good, despite the intense heat. Mrs. Ad Topperwein, one of the world's greatest woman shots and the sensation of Wednesday's competition, broke 105 birds to lead the professionals in singles. Arthur Casaden, of Tampa, Fla., with his 190, won the official professional title, however, as women are ineligible.

Paul Williams, of Huntsville, Ala., won third place in the amateur shoot with a score of 193. J. P. Pullin, Atlanta, and T. K. Lee, Alabama star from Birmingham, tied for fourth with scores of 194. Another Atlanta gunner, H. R. Freeman, took sixth with 193 birds.

Mr. Williams, who shoots in the employ of Winchester's arms and does trick-shooting with her husband on the stage, was as usual, the life of the party. "Top" had the longest run of the shoot so far with her broken string of 115, continued from Wednesday.

HOT PRACTICE.
Those who took practice rounds of doubles after the official singles were very good. Besides Paul Earle's beautiful 50x50, T. K. Lee had a 48, and Ed Flynn, Mobile, busted 47. Some close competition is promised in the doubles championships today.

Three events are on the program for today, with the battle beginning at 9 a. m. First will come the "wolf and lamb" singles, then the International 100, and last the doubles championships. It is expected that the doubles will be the most exciting.

A night exhibition shoot will be held tonight at 8 o'clock.

'DRAFT' WAR SEEN AS AID
League clubs had some agreement with a major league team. "They were very unwilling to break those relations and leaped right into the draft agreement leaving the fight to the three AA leagues and Class A Western league and the Class B Three-I league."

WAR IS ON.
Now that the faces have been slapped the war seems to be on and the Southern league feels that it at last has a chance to derive some benefits from the draft regulations.

There are some who insist that honor would demand some fight be made against the major leagues who are seeking complete domination of baseball. But the boys aren't seeking anything idealistic. What they want is better prices for their ball players. And the baseball war will bring it about unless the boys get together.

"I think we will be benefited a great deal in this league," said the Cracker official Thursday. "If the majors do not buy any ball players from those five leagues they will buy most of them from the Texas, Eastern and Southern leagues. That means better prices for our ball players. They will have to buy most of them from us. Our minor leagues will also benefit."

QUITE CORRECT.
The Cracker president is quite correct in his analysis of the impending war. Not only will the clubs already confined in the draft cells benefit from increased value on their baseball ivory but at the same time they will be able to get better players from the major leagues. Which, from the viewpoint of the public, is more important.

Ball players who are now sent by the majors to the three AA leagues would have to be farmed out to the Southern, Eastern and Texas leagues. At least they would get the pick of the players which are released by the majors for further seasoning.

While these days of modern business methods indicate that the boys will get together, there is no definite assurance of such a move.

OLD IDEAS.
There are a few owners in the AA leagues who seem to cling to the old-fashioned ideas of personal and property rights. They have their backs up a bit but the old Tsar himself may break them. He usually does. They all get jelly in their spine when the man with the deep, keen eyes and the white mane faces them.

Meanwhile the boys in the draft are hoping that the five leagues in question will have the courage to stay out. It may sound a bit like sordid finances but the fact remains that in every war the price of the most-needed commodity goes up. And in this case it is ball players.

La Barba-Mastro Bout Being Sought

CHICAGO, July 10.—(P)—Negotiations today were under way for a 10-round bout between Earl Mastro, Chicago featherweight, and Fidel La Barba, of Los Angeles, to be staged by the Chicago Stadium Corporation.

Although stadium officials recently announced the building would be closed for the remainder of the summer, Matchmaker Nate Lewis said the bout might be held indoors July 30.

Rabbit Each Mile Killed by Drivers

NEW YORK, July 10.—Br'er Rabbit is indignant at the needless slaughter of his tribe by careless motorists, according to reports reaching the American Game Protective Association here. A rabbit a mile of road and highway is killed every year, a cursory survey of the United States shows. Each state has an average of 40 to 60 thousand miles of public highways and roads, which brings Bunnies' mortality rate of ravenous slaughter to millions.

Br'er Rabbit and Carlos Avery, president of the American Game Protective Association, agree that many lives of the Bunny tribe can be saved by careful driving.

THE FOX HOLDS LIGHT WORKOUT BEFORE CLASSIC

Great Horse Is Figured 'In' by Followers—Foes Want Rain.

CHICAGO, July 10.—(P)—Gallant Fox, the super horse of the year, probably will go to the post a 2-to-5 favorite in the $80,000 Arlington classic at a mile and a quarter to be decided at Arlington Park Saturday afternoon.

This was the guess today, after the Fox, already proclaimed the three-year-old champion, because of his five successive victories in rich take events in the last sixty days, went through his final training gallop. The Fox, with Earl Sande up, did a slow gallop twice around the mile and an eighth track, which was a trifle heavy due to a drizzling shower. He will be sent through an exercise dash of three furlongs tomorrow, in the nature of a tightening-up sprint.

In today's workout Sande at no time allowed the great thoroughbred to have his head, but stood upright in the stirrups, and permitted Gallant Fox to bob along at a canter.

The prospects tonight were that the starting field in the classic would number ten, including two fillies. While the easterners are predicting that the classic will be only a parade with Gallant Fox and Sande in the lead every step of the way, the "hard boys" of Kentucky are praying for rain. They figure the speedy Kentucky filly Alcibiades will certainly have a chance if the track is muddy. She is getting in the race with 118 pounds along with Snowflake, and the Harry Payne Whitney filly Dusty.

Snowflake, the speedy filly owned by Walter J. Salmon, of New York, will not start if the track is other than fast.

"You haven't shifted gears for miles!"

"That's this H-C Gas!"

UP hill and down dale, mile after mile after mile with hardly a single shift of gears—yes, this Highway Contentment comes with Sinclair H-C Gasoline! In any weather on any road you'll have a world of power at your toe-tip to carry you up the steepest hill in high—without a knock! H-C increases your H. P.—and it stops knocks! It's all gasoline—nothing added*. Drive in wherever you see the Sinclair H-C Pump.

Nothing Added!
No foreign substance is needed to give H-C Gasoline anti-knock performance.

DAY IN FINANCE

By R. L. BARNUM

NEW YORK, July 10.—Stocks were sold during the first half hour with widespread rumors that an important announcement was coming from the stock exchange. The average decline for leading shares for this period was 1 1/2 points. Around 10:30 a clock it was announced from the stock exchange floor that Sutra & Co., of 44 Wall street, had been suspended for three years for violating the rules of the exchange. When Wall Street learned that the announcement was less important than expected, stocks began to advance.

According to official announcements a customer of an uptown branch office of Sutra & Co., last spring, apparently in an effort to support the price of Manhattan Electric, put in order to buy and sell that stock at the same price, which meant that ownership of the stock thus traded in did not change hands. This is a violation of the stock exchange rules.

Sutra & Co., of 44 Wall street has no connection with the stock exchange firm of Sutra Bros. & Co., of 120 Broadway.

A decline of 91,000 tons was reported in unfilled orders of the United States Steel Corporation for the month of June, bringing the total to 1,998,000 tons. The high for this year was 4,570,000 tons at the end of March. On June 30 of last year the figures stood at 4,256,000. The decline for June was about what Wall Street expected. There was a sharp falling off last month in new business booked, but the decline in production and shipments was larger. Investment railroad shares were in good demand today. This buying reflected the advance in freight rates authorized by the interstate commerce commission early this week. Individual railroads are making statements showing substantial estimated increases in earnings to come from the higher freight rates.

Gas Output Cnt Progresses

Wall Street people usually well informed on oil, are telling their friends that leading oil refiners throughout the country are making decided progress in curtailing gasoline production. A fortnight or so ago representatives of large refiners throughout the country met here at the offices of the American Petroleum Institute and agreed to cut down gasoline production for the benefit of the oil industry as a whole. Since then Standard Oil of New Jersey, the largest refiner of gasoline, has reduced gasoline production 15 per cent, with other large producers following. In usually well informed quarters here it is believed that before the automobile season ends there will be a large reduction of gasoline in storage. Oil shares are expected to discount this favorable development.

Statements were made today that Wall Street discredited rumors of a significant pool formed by Wall Street bankers to put up the stock market. A usually well informed Wall Street quarters nothing has been said about a large banking pool. It was pointed out in this column last Tuesday that powerful banking interests had decided to adopt a more aggressive stock market policy. No pool was formed, individual banks will look after their

U. S. REPORT PREDICTS CORN, WHEAT CROP HIKE

WASHINGTON, July 10.—(AP)—A 1936 wheat crop exceeding last year's 808,000,000 bushels and a corn crop of 1,880,000,000 bushels larger than the harvest of 1929 were forecast today by the department of agriculture.

Crop prospects as a whole, on the basis of July 1 conditions, the department said, point to larger acreages planted in a majority of the principal crops, and a yield per acre about one per cent above that of last year, despite dry weather during the spring.

The report showed increased acreage in oats, rye, rice, beans, soy beans, cowpeas, potatoes, sweet potatoes, tobacco and sugar beets.

A decreased acreage was shown for wheat—a move recommended by the federal farm board—although the total estimated volume in bushels was placed at "practically the same as the crop harvested in 1929." Other decreased acreages included cotton, barley, hay and peanuts.

Estimates for the leading crops compared with the 1928 harvest follow: Corn 2,802,000,000 bushels compared with 2,614,000,000 bushels in 1929; wheat 807,000,000 against 806,000,000; oats 1,329,000,000 against 1,234,000,000; barley 352,000,000 against 304,000,000; rye 47,858,000 against 40,500,000; potatoes 388,000,000 against 380,000,000.

The department said that the number of acres planted in corn was indicated to have increased in virtually all the important corn states, with a total indicated acreage of 101,531,000, the largest since 1923.

There appeared to have been a shift from hay to corn in the north and from cotton to corn in much of the south," the report said.

The production of winter wheat was forecast at 558,000,000 bushels, an increase of 26,000,000 bushels above the forecast by the department on June 1. The spring bread wheat crop was estimated at 135,000,000 bushels, or 10 per cent greater than the 1929 harvest.

The department said the reported conditions of various fruit crops indicated a production per acre or per tree of about 15 per cent above the low production of last year, but about 10 per cent below the average of the past 10 years. The total apple crop was forecast at 145,388,000 bushels, and the total peach crop at nearly 48,000,000 bushels.

The acreage planted in potatoes was estimated at 5,482,000, an increase of over 3 per cent. The increased acreage in the south was placed at 13 per cent, while the Maine crop was estimated to be the largest on record.

Exchange Suspends Sutra and Company

NEW YORK, July 10.—(AP)—The New York Stock Exchange Thursday announced the suspension of Sutra and Company of New York and San Francisco for three years.

The governing committee explained that the substance of the charges against the member was that "through the manner in which the Forty-Fourth street (New York) branch office of Sutra & Co. was conducted, transactions to buy and sell the same security were executed at the same time and at the same price and in the opinion of the governing committee did not involve a change of ownership."

A statement issued by Sutra & Co. said: "Charges on which the action of the stock exchange were based were wholly in connection with transactions on behalf of a client, Charles H. McCarthy in Manhattan Electrical Supply Company stock, all of which originated in a branch office, 16 East Fourth street, New York City, which was in charge of Brinson Butler, who resigned June 24, 1930."

James H. McGee, floor member of the firm, was suspended under Section 7 Article 17 of the constitution of the exchange. News real and short subjects. Lou Forbes conducting Paramount grand orchestra. On the stage, "Valentines on Parade" with Paramount Rockets. LOEW'S GRAND—"Redemption," with John Gilbert. News and real short subjects. METROPOLITAN—"Hello, Sister," with Olive Borden, Lloyd Hughes, etc. "Up the Congo," talking picture of African exploration.

WASHINGTON, July 10.—(AP)—President Hoover today received an autographed copy of his latest biography from the author, printer and publisher. William J. Marsh, Jr., aged 11, of New Milford, Conn., and his 10-year-old brother and helper, Charles, called upon Mr. Hoover and were greeted warmly by the president. The young publisher had written six months of diligent labor by them upon a printing press which William bought for 50 cents.

Making their first visit to the capital the two boys and their father and mother went sightseeing after calling on the president. They expected to visit the members of which they were unbranded by the youthful publisher for their repeated attacks upon the president and for degrading prohibition.

Plan To Salvage Miami Bank Heard

MIAMI, Fla., July 10.—(AP)—Appointment of a liquidator for the defunct Bank of Miami Beach by the Federal Reserve board is expected within 15 days, representatives of the controller's office said here today.

The statement followed dismissal of a suit for federal receivership by the United States circuit court of appeals in New Orleans yesterday. The court action related affairs of the bank in the hands of the state controller.

Depositors of the Miami Beach Bank and Trust Company, one of the subsidiaries, tonight head a plan advanced by officials of the City National Bank of Miami to take over the closed institution's affairs. It is contemplated that payment of 50 per cent of deposits will be made when the new bank opens.

WE WOULD ALWAYS REMEMBER IT. FOR, AS DOC WATERS SAYS, IT IS ALWAYS GOOD TO REMEMBER DANGERS THAT WE HAVE HAD TO PASS THROUGH, SO THAT IN FUTURE WE MAY BE MORE WATCHFUL AND CAREFUL. AND SO THE DAY ENDED.

Indiana Mine Group Point to Red Activity

TERRE HAUTE, Ind., July 10.—(AP)—Officials of district No. 11, United Mine Workers of America, said today they had positive information that members of the communist party had been active among miners at Bicknell, Ind., in an effort to foster the dual union established several months ago at Springfield, Ill.

A statement issued by Michael Ferguson and William Mitch, president and secretary-treasurer, respectively of district 11, said communist party members had been working, not only in behalf of the dual union movement, but also had been disseminating communist literature among miners employed by the Knox Consolidated Coal Company at Bicknell.

William Green, president of the American Federation of Labor, testified before a congressional committee at Washington recently that there were communist activities among miners employed by the Knox Consolidated Coal Company. Edwin D. Logan, receiver for the company, later demanded that Green retract his accusation.

Union officials declared they had obtained an admission from an employee of the company that he had gone to Chicago to attend a school in communistic propaganda and later had returned to work in the Knox Consolidated mine.

Mayor Walker Harpoons Fish Too Big to Handle

MONTAUK, L. I., July 10.—(UN)—At about the same time today that was flashed on land that the yacht on which Mayor Jimmy Walker, of New York, was a guest had grounded on a sand bar, his honor was desperately hoping that such a maritime mishap would befall him.

The mayor, who was on a deep-sea monster, whose specialty seemed to be making non-stop trans-Atlantic runs. The mayor encountered the unidentified species off Montauk Point, L. I., where he was fishing in a 45-foot cabin cruiser. When the dark shadow of the denizen of the deep passed the cruiser, one of the mayor's fellow-fishermen let go a harpoon. The hook landed. The harpoon roared and so did the mayor's nerves.

LAST SERVICES TODAY FOR BERNARD SUTTLER

Funeral services for Bernard Suttler, 79, prominent author, free lance writer and former editor of the "Atlantic City," the "Iron Tradesman" and "The Cotton Journal," who died at a private hospital suddenly Wednesday afternoon, will be conducted at 3:30 o'clock this afternoon from the residence of his father, 838 DeKalb street, N. W., with the Rev. Len G. Broughton officiating. Interment will be in West View cemetery.

Mr. Suttler who lived at 66 Huntington road, wrote extensively for newspapers and magazines, but was the author of a number of books among them being "Men of Mark in History." He was born in Charleston, W. Va., in 1857, and after reaching maturity began his writing career in Little Rock, Ark., as a free lance writer. He was later in the employ of the New York newspapers and looking after interests in salt mines.

He came to Atlanta from Mexico, 26 years ago and after a short while in business, again took up his writing and he wrote a large number of feature articles and stories. He was later editor of several small magazines and periodicals. His writings were largely along lines of political, historical and sensational subjects. He was injured in a fall two weeks ago, breaking both hips. He succumbed to these injuries suddenly Wednesday.

He is survived by his widow, a daughter, Mrs. Ralph Roberts, and a son, Bernard Suttler, Jr.

BOULEVARD DECLARED ASSURED TO ATLANTA

The Fair street extension to East Lake to become a part of Stone Mountain boulevard seems to be an assured proposition after a meeting held Thursday night in the Kirkwood Masonic hall under the auspices of the Twelfth Ward Improvement Club, according to Roy A. Brooks, secretary of the club.

The project has the endorsement of the state highway department and the commission of roads and revenues of DeKalb county, stated Mr. Brooks, and the entire boulevard when completed will extend from Whiteford avenue to Avondale Estates, furnishing a direct traffic outlet into the DeKalb county.

Clarke Donaldson, chief of construction, and R. W. Crenshaw, former mayor of East Lake, were among the speakers at Thursday night's meeting. The former gave his complete support to the project.

A number of deeds to right-of-way were signed at the enthusiastic meeting and promise was solicited to sign still others. The deeds were for the tract between East Lake school and Whiteford avenue. Mr. Brooks stated that in his opinion it was but a matter of time until all the right-of-way would be settled and that as soon as the width of the proposed highway can be settled that the project will have been accomplished. Grading on the part of the extension lying in DeKalb county began Thursday morning.

Another boulevard project is also under way in Atlanta. Tentative surveys are now being made for a diagonal boulevard extending into the southwest section of Atlanta, through West End. Tentative plans call for extending the thoroughfare from practically the same terminus out into the northwest section of the city to open up new territory in that area.

Fleagle Is Hanged For Bank Killing

CANON CITY, Colo., July 10.—(AP)—Ralph Fleagle was hanged tonight at 9:05 o'clock (M. S. T.) He was pronounced dead at 9:15-2.

Fleagle, Lamar (Colo.) bank bandit, today lost his last chance to escape the gallows.

The state supreme court refused a plea of Fleagle's attorneys for judicial recommendation of reprieve. This action followed by a few hours the refusal of Governor William H. Adams to intervene.

Fleagle's attorneys made a plea to the court, based on a confession and an alleged agreement made at Colorado Springs after Fleagle's arrest and for which, Fleagle contended, he was to be given a life sentence.

The confession resulted in the arrest of Howard L. Royston and George J. Absher, who, with Jake Fleagle, Ralph's brother, staged the robbery of the Lamar bank, during which three bank officials were killed and a Kansas physician was slain after he had dressed wounds of one of the bandits.

Royston and Absher are scheduled to be hanged sometime during the week ending July 10. Jake Fleagle has not been apprehended.

Pius Says Methodists Attempt Proselyting

VATICAN CITY, July 10.—(UN)—Proselyting activities which he said were being conducted by Italian American Protestants were deplored by Pope Pius XI during a conversation today with Justice Victor J. Dowling, of New York.

"We have the firmest confidence in the faith of the Italian people," the Pope commented. "They will not succumb to the temptations they are pouring money here."

The chief American missions here are those directed by the Methodists. Justice Dowling was received in audience by the pope, and talked with him for about 40 minutes. The pope was concerned over the worry aroused in the United States by the reports of his allegedly critical illness recently.

"We feel well and can do our work," the Pope remarked. "What can a man ask more?"

The pope described how he had received numerous letters from the United States since the reports were published about his "illness."

Gen. Von Bernhardt Is Dead at Age of 81

BERLIN, July 10.—(AP)—General Friedrich von Bernhardt, high German officer during the World War, died today at the age of 81. He was the first Prussian officer to enter Paris after its fall in the Franco-Prussian war.

General von Bernhardt was also a famous writer on military affairs and strategy.

He was an early advocate of the use of asphyxiating gases.

Mrs. R. P. Brooks Speaks at Road Meet

OKLAHOMA CITY, Okla., July 10.—(AP)—Meeting here today as the United States good roads convention adjourned its 18th annual session, the National Highway Association named W. A. Boone, of Pontotoc, Miss., president, and asked congress to name the Bankhead highway a military road.

Arthur L. Aniston, Ala.; C. E. Reep, of Carrollton, Ga.; and R. C. McDaniel, of Arkadelphia, Ark., were selected vice-presidents-at-large.

After selecting Charlotte, N. C., as the 1931 convention city, and T. L. Kirkpatrick, of Chicago, Ill., as the 1932 convention city, the association adjourned. Most of the delegates, however, left here yesterday.

Mrs. R. P. Brooks, of Atlanta, today related that women of Georgia have organized and without money in their pockets have planted 8,000 trees along highways in one congressional district. Trees, flowers and shrubbery are blooming and growing along the highways of the state as a result of women's work with civic and garden clubs.

The women, Mrs. Brooks said, also are waging a fight in that state to make "potholes" disappear from trees after campaigns.

Cardinal's Funeral To Be Held Saturday

VATICAN CITY, July 10.—(AP)—Funeral services for Cardinal Vannutelli, dean of the Sacred college, who died yesterday evening of uremic poisoning, has been fixed for Saturday at 10 a. m. at the Church of St. Ignatius. Repairs within his own titular church, St. Mary Major, is undergoing, made fitting obsequies there at this time impossible.

The new dean of the Sacred college, Cardinal Granito Pignatelli Di Belmonte, will preside and impart benediction.

Cardinal Vannutelli's body has lain in state in the throne room of his apartment in the D'Ataria palace since his death yesterday evening.
